Returning Starters:	12 (5 offense, 7 defense)
Head Coach Mike Stoops:	40-45, eighth year in 2011 (Iowa '86); 27-36 vs. Pac-10; 0-2 vs. Utah
Offensive formation:	Multiple spread
Defensive formations:	4-3, 4-2-5

Arizona head coach Mike Stoops has returned Arizona football to contention and takes a good team into the first year of Pac-12 play. What happens remains to be seen but the 2011 club has talent, depth, quality coaching and a solid dose of chemistry based on spring practice. UA expects no less than a fourth consecutive bowl season and a shot at the national rankings.

Stoops' program has featured steady recruiting and outstanding player development. It's had some notable highs – like last year's 7-1 start and No. 9 AP ranking – and some difficulty in closing, but it's never lacked the belief it could win week to week. The Cats back down from no one and have established winning as a cornerstone of the program.

UA's prospects in 2011 hinge on the playmaking of superior skill-position players on offense and a smooth transition in charting a course for a group of younger defenders. The Cats are especially deep at quarterback, receiver and in the secondary.

The thought of contending for the Pac-10 championship in back-to-back seasons may have seemed like a pipe dream to Arizona football fans when Mike Stoops was hired in December 2003. Now seven seasons later, the UA head coach continues to point the Wildcats on that same upward path he envisioned upon his arrival in Tucson.

Certainly, the last two years have provided a roller coaster of meaningful wins and a few missed opportunities, but that doesn't change the focus: to continue to make Arizona football a championship-caliber program.

"Football is a tough game," says Stoops. "It took us a while to become a good team and it's hard to become a great team, but we want to go further. Even though we feel like we've treaded water a little bit (lately), we have to find a way to get through that and to the next level."

If that breakthrough is to come in 2011, the Wildcats will need some of the best skill-position guys in the Pac-12 Conference to produce, while a completely rebuilt offensive line finds its collective legs.

"We're going to be inexperienced on the offensive line, but hopefully we make up for that inexperience with our experience at quarterback, wide receiver, and all our skill positions," explained Stoops. "It's a little bit of a tradeoff, but I like the improvement our offensive line had made. If we can continue to improve then we can have a very effective offense with the experience. We've got prolific quarterbacks, wide receivers and great running backs. We've got all the pieces, but you've got to have an offensive line that can protect the quarterback."

The strength of the defense will be in the secondary, as the program needs to fill the gaps left primarily by three defensive ends who were each selected in April's NFL Draft. All told, look for the Arizona "D" to be stronger up the middle and rely on the secondary to lock things down and bring pressure when necessary.

"Defensively, it's a very competitive group," Stoops said. "I think we'll be better inside, we won't be as good outside on the perimeter because we just lost three outstanding defensive ends. It'll be a big hole to fill, but I like the way our young defensive ends have improved. We're going to rely on our corners and our secondary guys because we're going to have to create pressure through the second level of our defense."

Here is a quick look at some of the guys who will make a difference for the Wildcats this season, beginning with the offensive side of the ball.

Quarterback Nick Foles

"He's going to have to be an unbelievable leader for our offense, and we wouldn't put that on his shoulders if we didn't think he could do it," he said. "He's a great guy, good person, great football player, studies the game and I feel like he's definitely the guy on our offense who is a very strong leader."

Stoops feels the same way, saying that it's Foles' understanding of the UA offense that sets him apart. "Everyone relies heavily on their quarterback, but Nick gives us a great leader that understands what we're doing extremely well," he said.

Foles' primary targets in the receiving corps will be Juron Criner, Dan Buckner, David Douglas and David Roberts. This quartet anchors arguably the deepest receiving corps in the conference. Add sophomore Richard Morrison and junior Terrence Miller to a deep unit.

Receiver Juron Criner

It all starts with the quarterback on offense, and the Wildcats are blessed with a good one in Nick Foles, a 6-foot-5 senior from Austin, Texas. He has been the starter for most of the last two seasons, passing for better than 7,600 yards to go with 39 touchdown passes and a completion percentage of better than 65 percent.

Playing behind a completely new offensive line will be a challenge for the UA signal caller, one that will test his leadership skills. Getting guys in the right spots and keeping them focused might prove more important than simply delivering the football, according to offensive coordinator Seth Littrell.

Criner, a 6-foot-4 senior from Las Vegas, was a second-team All-American and all-Pac-10 honoree last year after catching 82 passes for 1,223 yards and 11 touchdowns as a junior. Each of those totals ranked in the top five on the UA single season charts.

Buckner, a 6-foot-4 junior from Allen, Texas, will make his UA debut this fall after transferring from Texas a year ago. He grabbed 49 passes in 25 appearances for the Longhorns in 2008 and 2009.

Douglas, a 6-foot-1 senior from McKinney, Texas, ranked second on the team last season with a career-high 52 catches for 515 yards and five scores. He continues to improve, as his production has risen in each passing year.

Roberts, a 6-foot senior from Rancho Cucamonga, Calif., snagged 44 balls in 2010 for 487 yards and two touchdowns.

2011 Arizona Football

"The receivers are the most experienced players we have on the field," Stoops said. "For the most part, they're the best skill players we've had in a long time. It's a very complete group, and I like that we have size and speed with guys who can work the middle part of the field, and we have perimeter guys that can really stretch the field."

The Wildcat running backs have a standout in 5-foot-8 senior Keola Antolin. He's led Arizona in rushing in each of the last two seasons, totaling 668 yards on 143 carries in 2010 (4.7 ypc). A very durable back, Antolin has played in all 26 games since the start of 2009. The best attribute about Antolin might be his work ethic, as few players out-work the diminutive back.

"Every single day he comes out and works his tail off, competes hard, and he's another guy within our offense that people look up to," said Littrell. "He just makes plays."

In the wake of Greg Nwoko's knee injury, one pleasant surprise to emerge in the backfield from spring practice was Daniel Jenkins. A 5-foot-9 sophomore from Moreno Valley, Calif., Jenkins, who averaged 3.2 yards per carry in limited action last season, has quickness and a shiftiness about him.

"D.J. was mentioned a lot this spring as a guy doing a lot of great things," Littrell said. "He just has to continue to develop and continue to focus each and every day."

Littrell likes what he sees in the Wildcat personnel. A versatile and experienced group of skill players has helped to keep the offensive focus on moving the ball and scoring points.

"I feel like we've got a good feel for what we need to do offensively," said Littrell. "I'm really excited about this group. I think we have great chemistry on offense. I think that's a key ingredient to building success. We'll figure out different ways to score points and win football games."

Defensively, the premise remains the same. Stoops and his troops have used a multiple 4-3 with the ability to bring pressure from just about anywhere.

Much like last season where the Cats had to replace their starting linebackers, this season's preparations are complicated by personnel maneuvers: three key players lost to the NFL Draft and another three guys lost to ACL injuries in the spring.

When asked about the personnel, defensive coordinator Tim Kish responded, "That's an interesting question. Obviously we had some adversity with a couple ACLs with three very solid players for us, but you know what, everybody goes through those moments and situations. I think we have some really solid talent in a lot of different positions."

Senior defensive ends C.J. Parish and Mohammed Usman should be the bookends of the defensive line. Both are 6-foot-2, 245 pounds and Texas natives – Parish from College Station and Usman from Arlington – and the duo combined for seven tackles a year ago in back-up roles.

Also worth noting is redshirt freshman Dan Pettinato (DE/6-4/260), who had very solid springs. He'll have to step up and take a role immediately.

Linebacker Paul Vassallo

Returning starters Paul Vassallo and Derek Earls will lead the linebackers. Vassallo, a 6-foot-3 senior from Reno, Nev., led the Wildcats with 77 solo stops and 102 total tackles in 2010, while Earls, a 6-foot-3 senior from Waconia, Minn., added 44 tackles of his own.

But the late spring injury to Jake Fischer has opened the door for one of three incoming freshmen to step in and play right away in his absence. Rob Hankins, Hank Hobson and Domonique Petties will have to hit the those three coming in here," said Kish. "We'll get them as best prepared as we can, but they know there is an opportunity for them to get on the field and play."

The deepest part of the Wildcat "D" is in the secondary, where four standouts return who have combined for more than 100 games played and 50 starts over the last three seasons.

Safeties Robert Golden, a senior, and sophomore Marquis Flowers man the back. Golden ranked third on the club with 60 tackles last year and led the team with 12 pass break ups. Flowers stepped into a key role right from the start and collected 11 tackles in 13 games in 2010.

Cornerbacks Trevin Wade (5-11/192/Sr.) and Shaquille Richardson (6-2/180/So.) will be looked upon to lock down opposing receivers. Wade, a second-team all-Pac-10 selection in 2009, notched 47 tackles and one interception last year, while Richardson registered 29 stops and tied for the team lead with a pair of interceptions.

Safety Robert Golden

Kish says that the Cats will look to mix things up in 2011 in order to keep opposing offenses off guard.

"We'll mix up our coverages and our base calls and we'll mix up our pressures," he said. "You just try to execute and upset the tempo of an offense. Whatever it is that we feel we can exploit somebody's weaknesses and play to our strengths and that's what we're going to do."

The Wildcats face one of the nation's most challenging schedules, featuring home games against Stanford (Sept. 17), Oregon (Sept. 24), UCLA (Oct. 20) and Utah (Nov. 5). Additionally, the conference expands to 12 members and for the first time will feature a North and South division and a Conference championship game (Dec. 2).

"I think it's exciting," said Stoops. "It's going to be another very competitive season, and we play one of the most difficult schedules in the country. It's really going to be an interesting race."

Can the Cats compete for the inaugural Pac-12 championship? Can the team make it to a fourth consecutive bowl game, which would be a program first? Those answers are still to come.

But Stoops feels that his teams are focused on moving the program ahead.

"Our players are determined to take this program again to another level," Stoops said. "Our accomplishments have been very significant in some ways, but we want to get to a different place...a higher level. I think this team can go further than some of our teams in the past."

ROSTER NOTES...

UA suffered three knee injuries during spring ball, throwing the return of starting safety Adam Hall, starting linebacker Jake Fischer and No. 2 running back Greg Nwoko into doubt. Each had surgery in April for ACL injuries, usually requiring rehabilitation for six to eight months. Hall and Fischer, juniors, played as true freshmen and have a redshirt year available. Nwoko redshirted as a true freshman in 2008... Junior DT Willie Mobley followed with a fourth knee surgery a short while later after a basketball injury... Soph DT Justin Washington, a Sporting News Freshman All-American in 2010, was held out of spring after shoulder surgery following the season but should be back in full form by late summer... A hurry-along drill starts in earnest with three freshman and a juco linebacker in the class due to Fischer's injury and two other lettermen (R.J. Young, Trevor Erno) quitting the team... Another new player expected to have a decent shot at immediacy is place kicker Jaime Salazar, a juco transfer, expected to push senior Alex Zendejas... QB Tom Savage signed scholarship papers in spring and is expected to enroll in the summer as a four-year transfer from Rutgers. He will have to sit out 2011 under transfer rules... Coaches have hinted they'd consider redshirting senior QB Matt Scott, although it was clear in spring that he's a top player on the team. He played as a true freshman in 2008 and was 2-0 in starts last year against Washington and UCLA, earning Pac-10 Player of the Week honors vs. The Huskies... The Wildcats have one of their widest geographical teams in recent memory, with players from 13 states, the District of Columbia and American Samoa. California leads the way as the home state for 39 Cats...

Head Coach Mike Stoops

Year in Coaching: 27th

Year at Arizona: Eighth

Mike Stoops, the 28th head football coach in Arizona's century-plus football history, took over a 2-10 program and turned it into a championship contender and bowl champion, taking no shortcuts along the way.

His recruiting success and the player development program under his guidance have given Arizona a roster deep with talent and full of players who own the same fortitude he brings to work every day.

His background in national-caliber football as a player and coach helped pave the way in Tucson, with improvement across the board from day one. His teams have beaten ranked squads each of his years at UA and last year he took the program to a No. 9 national ranking after a superior 7-1 start. The Cats were the Pac-10's inaugural entrant in the Valero Alamo Bowl after it joined the league bowl lineup.

Toughness, passion and accountability mark his style and program, along with his coaching love – defense. His recent work on the other side of the ball has helped refine his head coaching system into one of balance and consistency.

Under Stoops' direction, Arizona again slots players annually in the NFL Draft, earns first-team All-Pac-12 accolades, competes with the best... while the players comport themselves on and off the field as student-athletes and citizens befitting an institution of higher education.

Prior to his arrival in Tucson in December 2003, Stoops' coaching development took place at three stops – Iowa under Hayden Fry, Kansas State under Bill Snyder and Oklahoma under his brother, Bob. The theme at each was similar: build a foundation and then win. During his 18 years with those programs he helped build a combined record of 158-48-4, and remains among those credited with the success of the three programs including the 2000 national title year at OU.

At Arizona, Stoops endured some growing pains incorporating his system, wrapping up 2004 and 2005 with 3-8 years. Throughout, he and his staff worked tirelessly to recruit the kinds of players he helped mold into Lombardi, Butkus, Nagurski and Thorpe awards winners at Oklahoma. Three years into the effort, Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason added his name to the list of honorees Stoops helped develop.

His third and fourth Arizona clubs kept improving but didn't come through with finishing efforts in key games, finishing 6-6 and 5-7, respectively.

It changed in 2008, when the Wildcats shed their decade-old mantle as a second-division squad and fought for a 5-4 league record and 8-4 overall mark to return UA to the bowl season. That trip culminated with a championship in the Las Vegas Bowl over BYU in a game marked by the Cats' resiliency and determination, as well as offensive fireworks and tough defense. The 8-5 mark was UA's best in 10 years.

In 2009 Arizona took the Pac-10 race to the wire, facing off in late November against Oregon with the Rose Bowl on the line. The Duck prevailed in two overtimes, but UA bounced back and won two rugged road games at ASU and USC to finish alone in second place and earn a slot in the Holiday Bowl at 8-4. A year ago the Cats had a tough finish and wrapped up a third consecutive bowl season at 7-6.

The Cats wasted the opportunity and Stoops, 48, would likely enjoy forgetting that game against Nebraska (33-0 loss), but its effect proved useful in underlining the program's determination in spring ball this year.

The head coach again juggled his staff a bit in the offseason, assigning solo coordinators after a year of shared duties and re-invigorating his own hands-on work by assigning a young secondary coach to mentor.

Stoops and his staff, and the head man's strong call for toughness, composure and discipline from his players put Arizona in good shape in 2011 and beyond.

Tim Kish, Defensive Coordinator

Linebackers Coach

Year in Coaching: 36th

Year at Arizona: Eighth

Tim Kish was promoted to co-defensive coordinator after the 2009 season and assumed solo coordinator duties for the Alamo Bowl appearance and beyond in December 2010.

He is one of the nation's most-veteran defensive coaches and has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters.

He's been on Mike Stoops' Arizona staff since its first year in 2004, and his work with Stoops and six-year coordinator Mark Stoops was pivotal to UA's defensive strategies. He coaches the linebacker positions and has helped make the second level of the unit a consistent team strength throughout the Mike Stoops tenure.

Kish, 56, has three decades of coaching experience in the Big Ten, the Ohio prep ranks, at two Mid-American Conference schools, and at a major I-A independent. He came to UA after serving seven seasons as defensive coordinator at two Big Ten schools.

His work in his six years on the staff has helped Arizona's defense improved dramatically in overall effectiveness and put the program into position to win championships. His ascension to a coordinator's position reflects that. He also is UA's assistant head coach.

Recent Career Highlights:

- Helped develop three new starters in 2010 into a solid unit, with junior college transfer Paul Vassallo earning honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors in his first go-round. Vassallo became the first Cat since Lance Briggs to post more than 100 tackles.
- Helped coordinate a defense that finished fourth in rushing, passing and pass efficiency defense in a league full of 400+ offenses.
- Helped develop Xavier Kelley into a second-team All-Pac-10 pick in 2009, plus Vuna Tuihalamaka into an honorable mention selection off the league's No. 2 total defense unit. They were second and fourth on the club in tackles with a combined 150 hits and 11 for losses.
- Has been a defensive coordinator in the Big Ten and Pac-10.
- Was primary recruiting coach for seven Arizona 2010 signees.
- Helped develop Ronnie Palmer into a four-year 41-game starter and 2008 honorable mention All-Pac-10 pick his senior year

Seth Littrell, Offensive Coordinator

Tight Ends/H-Backs Coach

Year in Coaching: Eighth

Year at Arizona: Third

Littrell was promoted in the offseason to offensive coordinator after a season sharing duties as co-coordinator in 2010.

He joined the UA staff in February 2009 to coach tight ends, running backs and fullbacks, and in 2011 will focus on the coordinator post and the tight ends/H-backs.

He brought familiarity with Mike Stoops from his playing days at Oklahoma and connections to UA's offensive schemes as an assistant at Texas Tech. His tenure at Tech put him at the forefront of wide-open spread-offense football under then head coach and offensive coordinator Mike Leach.

Last year Littrell helped craft an attack that rated No. 3 in the Pac-10 in accumulating 439 yards per game, the third-best total in Arizona history.

Littrell played on a national championship club in 2000, so familiarity with winning football has been a cornerstone of his young coaching career. He also has established himself as a solid recruiter.

Littrell and his wife, Becca, were married in July 2007. They have an infant son, James Tripp Littrell.

Recent Career Highlights

- Helped coordinate a 439-yard offensive attack in 2010, third-best in Arizona football history.
- Coached five 2010 RBs to a total of 1,500 yards rushing, an average of 4.6 yards per carry, plus contribute 59 pass receptions for 432 more yards. Moreover, the group had effective ball security with only two fumbles in a combined 406 touches
- Coached UA's running backs Nic Grigsby and Keola Antolin to a combined 6.2 yards per tote in accumulating 1,200 yards and nine scores in 2009. They were nabbed behind the line for only 20 combined lost yards in downhill running.
- Coached effective ball security with Grigsby improving to zero fumbles in 2009 and all backs losing only three in a combined 369 touches.
- Helped develop A.J. Simmons and H-backs Chris Gronkowski and Taimi Tutogi into effective components of the UA running attack which finished a respectable fifth in the Pac-10 in rushing despite lost time by backs.
- Coached a pair of running backs at Texas Tech in 2008 who put up numbers similar to Arizona's output from Grigsby and Antolin, with Baron Batch and Shannon Woods combining for 1,435 yards and 19 rushing touchdowns, while catching 74 passes

2011 Arizona Football

Robert Anae, Offensive Line Coach

Running Game Coordinator

Year in Coaching: 26th

Year at Arizona: First

Anae joined the Arizona staff in January 2011 and coaches the offensive line and serves as running game coordinator. A 17-year Division I coaching veteran, he brought extensive experience with the spread attack from stints at BYU and Texas Tech.

Anae was offensive coordinator and inside receivers coach at Brigham Young for the past six seasons and has a strong background in offensive football as a former BYU player under LaVell

Edwards and five years spent in Lubbock, Texas, on then coach Mike Leach's staff from 2000-04.

Anae began his coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line at Hawaii in 1986-87, working Dick Tomey's final season in Honolulu before he took the Arizona job. He then was a grad assistant for a pair of years at BYU in 1990 and 1991 before coaching the offensive line at Ricks College in Idaho from 1992-95.

He coached at Boise State and UNLV before joining the Tech staff. He was the line coach for Leach in five seasons, crossing paths with current UA assistant Dave Nichol, then a G.A. for Leach. Anae was a Frank Broyles Award nominee for assistant coach of the year in 2003.

Anae and his wife, Liane, have two sons, Famika and Max, and a daughter, Penny. His son was a freshman lineman for the Cougars in 2010. Anae's father, Famika, and brothers Brad and Matt, also played football for BYU.

Recent Career Highlights

- Coached BYU to top 25 NCAA statistical rankings on 28 occasions, including 13 ratings in the top 10.
- Helped BYU craft a 56-21 record and six bowl appearances in the past six seasons.
- Helped tutor tight ends to six All-Mountain West Conference honors as BYU's inside receivers coach.
- Two QBs operating under his system went on to the NFL, John Beck and Max Hall.
- Helped BYU record a 9-5 mark against Pac-10 teams.

Garret Chachere, Running Backs Coach

Year in Coaching: 21st

Year at Arizona: Third

Garret Chachere joined the Arizona staff during spring 2009 after two years as an assistant at Memphis and a solid background on both offense and defense as a coordinator in a 19-year coaching career.

He switches to coaching running backs and fullbacks in 2011 after coaching inside receivers his first two seasons. UA's inside receiving game flourished under his leadership with a quartet of veteran and younger players at the spot in 2010.

Three of his charges, David Roberts, Terrence Miller and Richard Morrison, should be keys to the club's passing attack in 2011.

At Memphis he was special teams coordinator, which he additionally handled at Tulane from 1999 to 2006 where he was linebackers coach.

He had connections with Mike Stoops' Arizona staff from his 1998 stint with Northeast Louisiana, where former UA coordinator Sonny Dykes was receivers coach while Chachere coached tight ends and inside receivers.

Chachere is married to the former Lauren Duplessis of Hampton, Va. The couple has three sons: Grant, Noah and Jackson.

Recent Career Highlights

- Coached David Roberts to a 44-catch season in 2010, with Terrence Miller adding 29 and William Wright notching 25.
- Helped frosh Richard Morrison compete a switch from QB to culminate in breakout six-catch Alamo Bowl and 19 catches overall.
- Coached Roberts in a 12-catch game at Washington to post the second-highest reception total (tie) in school single-game history.
- Tutored three inside receivers to a combined 97 receptions and 964 yards in 2009.
- Current chairman of the program committee for the American Football Coaches Association.
- Featured on ESPN College Gameday and Best Damn Sports Show Period for leadership during Tulane University football team's Hurricane Katrina season in 2005
- Speaker at American Football Coaches Association national convention. Has authored articles for AFCA annual manuals.

2011 Arizona Football

Jeff Hammerschmidt, DEs Coach

Special Teams Coordinator

Year in Coaching: 20th

Year at Arizona: Eighth

Former Wildcat defensive back and coach Jeff Hammerschmidt joined the Arizona staff in 2008 after defining his early coaching career on the defensive side of play. He's special teams coordinator and works with the defensive ends. He has coached all defensive positions in his career.

Hammerschmidt, who worked earlier at Arizona under Dick Tomey, was a former star Wildcat and has injected life into special teams play along with his work mentoring one of the team's stronger defensive units the past several years.

Hammerschmidt, 43, was a four-year letterman, three-year starting safety and earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a junior at Arizona in 1989. He coached at UA under Tomey from 1992 to 1995, working with defensive backs his final two years.

He came to Arizona's staff in the second stint from San Jose State, where he was linebackers coach for Tomey in 2007. He also has additional Pac-10 experience as the outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Stanford in 2006 and worked under another former Arizona defensive coach, Rich Ellerson, at Cal Poly in 2005 and at Southern Utah from 1996-97.

He also was defensive coordinator for five years at St. Mary's and Montana, and coordinated special teams for two years in the Big Ten at Indiana. After his playing career he began coaching as a graduate assistant on Tomey's 1992 staff and became a fulltime UA secondary coach in 1993, working in Tucson three seasons.

Recent Career Highlights

- Coached senior Brooks Reed to first-team All-Pac-10 honors in 2010, with senior Ricky Elmore earning second-team citation.
- Coached place kicker Alex Zendejas to a 77 percent effectiveness in his first year as FG specialist including a school-record four-makes game and a game winner against ASU in 2009.
- Coached Jason Bondzio to school-record season and career field goal percentage records; coached he and punter Keenyn Crier to honorable mention all-league honors

Dave Nichol, Receivers Coach

Year in Coaching: 12th

Year at Arizona: Fifth

Dave Nichol enters his fifth year on the staff and in 2011 takes over responsibilities for both outside and inside receivers.

He was promoted to outside receivers coach position in February 2008 after serving in 2007 as the offensive graduate student.

His charges in 2010 were a prominent feature on offense, generating more than 2,000 yards catching the ball.

He's Arizona's sideline wig-wag man on offense, working with the coordinators to signal plays to the quarterback on game days.

Nichol added outstanding familiarity with the spread to the offensive staff and in his first two years as a full-time coach has helped Arizona's offense move the ball and score points.

He worked with inside receivers at Baylor in 2006, and before that worked three seasons (2203-05) helping with the offensive line at Texas Tech.

At Texas Tech, working with current co-coordinator Bill Bedenbaugh and former UA coach Sonny Dykes as a 2003 graduate assistant, Nichol helped the Red Raiders elevate their status as a national passing leader in breaking numerous school, conference and national records.

Nichol spent the 2002 season as the passing game coordinator at Cisco, Texas, Junior College.

He was a collegiate receiver at Tech from 1996 to 1999 and worked as a student coach on the Red Raiders staff, assisting with quarterbacks and receivers, after earning his degree in exercise and sport sciences. He later earned a master's from TTU in May 2002 in interdisciplinary studies.

Recent Career Highlights

- Coached junior Juron Criner to first-team All-Pac-10 and second-team All-America (SI) honors in 2010, with 83-1,233 figures.
- Had David Douglas earn honorable mention all-league honors after a 52-catch 2010 season, switching from inside to outside receiver
- Coached sophomore Criner to a 45-catch season, scoring a league- and team-high nine touchdowns in 2009. He and senior Terrell Turner were Arizona's top receivers with a combined 93 catches for a combined 1,040 yards and 13 scores.
- Coached Delashaun Dean and Turner to 53- and 43-catch seasons in complementing their work in helping the offense become an effective multiple-threat team in 2008. Dean came back with 43 grabs in 2009.
- Helped Arizona offensive coaches install and operate the spread offense in 2007, an attack that helped boost offensive production by 130 yards per game over the previous system.
- Worked with offensive coaches at Baylor to incorporate the spread, a system that helped the Bears set numerous school single-season passing records including yards, completions, percentage and touchdowns.

Joe Salave'a, Defensive Line Coach

Year in Coaching: Third

Year at Arizona: First

Nine-year NFL veteran and former Wildcat all-Pac-10 tackle Joe Salave'a joined Mike Stoops' staff as defensive line coach in time for December preparations for the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Salave'a, 36, lettered at Arizona as a defense tackle from 1994-97, serving as team captain in 1996. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors in 1995, second-team honors in 1996 and was a first-team selection in 1997.

Salave'a enters his third year of coaching after beginning his career as DL coach under his former collegiate coach, Dick Tomey, in two seasons at San Jose State from 2008-09.

A native of American Samoa, he has been one of the territory's foremost football ambassadors, promoting the game among Samoan youth, including a foundation to help introduce and strengthen the game's appeal.

His university career was an academic success story, capped by NCAA eligibility restoration after he graduated within four years. He enrolled at UA in 1993-94, but was ineligible for football as a partial qualifier, losing the year of eligibility. After his senior year in 1996-97, the NCAA changed its rules in spring 1997, and as a May graduate he was afforded a fourth year of playing eligibility (fifth year in residence), one of the first such student-athletes to benefit under the new rule.

He recorded 157 career tackles at Arizona, all as an interior lineman, with 43.5 tackles for loss, and 21.5 sacks to still rate No. 10 on UA's career sacks chart. He led the team in sacks and tackles for loss in both 1996 and 1997, and in fumbles caused in 1994 and 1996.

Salave'a was drafted in the fourth round by Tennessee in 1998 and spent five seasons with the Titans, one split year with the Baltimore Ravens and San Diego Chargers (2003) and his final three years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins from 2004-06.

His NFL career spanned some 100 games. He was the 107th overall draft selection and a member of the Titans' Super Bowl XXXIV team that lost to St. Louis, 23-16.

He founded the Joe Salave'a Foundation in 2001. The foundation specializes in free football clinics for youngsters in American Samoa and Hawai'i. His work was recognized by Congressman Eni Faleomavaega in a 2005 White House ceremony hosted by President George W. Bush to celebrate Asian-Pacific American Heritage Month.

Salave'a and his wife, Josephine, have a daughter, Katalina Elizabeth, and a son, Joseph Fatuimoana Jr.

Recent Career Highlights:

- Helped Arizona's defense hold a noted Oklahoma State running game to 72 yards in the Alamo Bowl, in just a short week on the staff.
- In 2008, he mentored San Jose State Spartans' tackle Jarron Gilbert, the NCAA leader in tackles for loss and the Chicago Bears' first pick in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Frank Scelfo, Quarterbacks Coach

Year in Coaching: 30th

Year at Arizona: Second

Mike Stoops hired Frank Scelfo in February 2010, bringing in a veteran coach to coach quarterbacks.

Scelfo came to UA from Louisiana Tech where he was interim head coach for a month before Sonny Dykes was hired. Scelfo replaced Dykes at UA. Scelfo had been offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Bulldogs from 2007-09.

Scelfo was Tulane's offensive coordinator for eight years preceding his tenure at Louisiana Tech and tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator for the Green Wave for the three years before that. Prior to his college mentoring he was a noted prep coach in Louisiana and Texas for 14 years including a final year at Houston North Shore in 1995.

His coaching background has emphasized wide-open aerial assaults such as the decade spanning the late 1990s and early 2000s at Tulane, including an undefeated year, Conference USA title and Liberty Bowl championship in 1998.

Scelfo and wife, the former Holly Kingery, have two sons, Anthony and Jordan. Anthony was drafted by the Tampa Bay Rays in the 2008 Major League Baseball draft.

Recent Career Highlights

- Coached Nick Foles to honorable mention all-Pac-10 honors and Matt Scott to Pac-10 Player of the Week honors for one of his two starts in 2010.
- Helped UA craft a national No. 24 total offense and No. 9 passing offense in 2010.
- In 2008 at Louisiana Tech, Scelfo directed a Bulldogs offense that helped take the program to the Independence Bowl championship, its first bowl victory in three decades. The team was 27th nationally in rushing, with Daniel Porter leading the way with 1,164 yards. The Bulldogs had six games of 30 or more points and Scelfo mentored a sophomore quarterback, Ross Jenkins, a first-time starter.
- Louisiana Tech's offense averaged nearly 30 points in 2009, with Porter rushing for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons with 1,132 and 111 scores, at a 5.4 yards per tote clip. He became Tech's career leader with 3,352 yards.
- Scelfo helped the Tulane Green Wave record five seasons ranked in the national top 30 in passing, including a No. 3 rating in 2000, when Tulane posted a seventh-rate offense figure of 450 yards per game.
- Mentored four NFL signal callers in Patrick Ramsey (Broncos), J.P. Losman (Bills), Lester Ricard (Jaguars) and Shaun King (Buccaneers). Each finished in Tulane's career passing top five.

Ryan Walters, Secondary Coach

Year in Coaching: Second

Year at Arizona: Second

Walters moved to a full-time assistant coaching the secondary in February 2011 after serving a year as the defensive graduate assistant on the Wildcat staff.

He joined the Arizona staff in August 2010 following a noted playing career at the University of Colorado.

His showed in spring ball this year that he's ready for the rigors of coaching at the BCS level.

Walters, 25, was a 33-game starter in four seasons in Boulder, all under secondary coach Greg Brown, who Walters succeeds at Arizona after the latter returned to the staff at CU earlier this year. Stoops appointed veteran University of Texas secondary coach Duane Akina in January, but he opted to return to a position with the Longhorns.

The UA assignment is his first full-time coaching position and he becomes the youngest current football assistant coach in the Pac-12 Conference.

Walters earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the Associated Press and first-team All-Colorado honors from the state's National Football Foundation chapter his senior year. A team captain for the Buffaloes in 2008, Walters also was picked by his teammates as the club's most valuable player, to highlight a number of citations. The CU coaching staff gave him the Hang Tough Award for overcoming adversity, he was an inaugural Gold Group Commitment Award member, plus was feted by fans as winner of the Buffalo Heart Award.

He had 87 tackles, two sacks, seven pass deflections, three fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and two interceptions his senior year. His 20 career passes defended rate No. 15 in Colorado history and his 223 career tackles were No. 45.

Walters played in 46 games for Colorado despite a litany of shoulder, knee and hand injuries, and illness that kept him out of a couple of spring practices.

A native of Los Angeles, Walters was a heralded player at Grandview High School in Aurora, Colo., as a three-year starting quarterback. His father, Marc, played quarterback for Colorado from 1986-89.

Walters earned his degree in history from CU in December 2008, with a minor in atmospheric science.

Erick Harper, Associate AD/Football Ops

Year in College Athletics: 26th

Year at Arizona: Eighth

Erick Harper, 43, handles primary administrative functions for Arizona's football program and has been one of Mike Stoops' key aides throughout the coach's tenure in Tucson.

He enters his eighth year on the staff after joining the operational efforts in its early stages in December 2003. He is an associate athletics director for football operations, overseeing the daily administrative functions and planning for the Wildcat football program as well as supporting details for recruiting. He serves on AD Greg Byrne's senior staff advisory committee.

He also handles all team travel in the regular season and post season. He is an important liaison between the athletics compliance director and the football staff.

For the past seven years he has been the remote host for the Assistant Football Coaches radio show, and worked on the basketball assistant coaches show in 2007 on UA's partner KCUB-1290 AM.

Harper is a former collegiate player and brings that insight to his operational decisions.

Harper developed his leadership skills while serving as an athletic administrator at Kansas State for 10 years. He graduated from Kansas State in 1992 and served an internship in the athletic marketing and development office at Kansas State from November 1990 to June 1992. His first seven years at Kansas State coincided with Stoops' tenure there as defensive ends coach and co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

He spent 14 years overall at Kansas State, where he served the athletics department in several capacities, including assistant director of marketing and promotions, assistant director of marketing and development, director of advertising sales, and compliance auditor. Harper was involved in marketing, development, promotions and advertising sales from November 1990 to February 1996.

In 1996, he was promoted to compliance auditor as an assistant athletics director. He developed the educational programs designed to keep coaches, student-athletes and staff aware of institutional, Big 12 and NCAA by-laws governing intercollegiate athletics.

Harper was a football team captain at KSU to cap a four-year career as a defensive back from 1986-89. He earned All-Big-8 Freshman honors, was an all-league honorable mention selection each year, earned UPI All-Big 8 honorable mention once and was an honorable mention All-America pick by Football News. He was a two-time Academic All-Big 8 honoree. Harper finished his career ranked No. 15 on the Wildcats' all-time tackles list with 245, was No. 2 with eight fumble recoveries and No. 9 with 137 yards on interception returns. Among six career picks, he returned two for scores against Kansas, still the second-most in KSU history.

David Emerick, Assistant Operations Director

Year in Football: 13th

Year at Arizona: Second

David spearheads Arizona's recruiting efforts as assistant director of operations and director of on-campus recruiting. He joined the UA football staff in February 2010 after six years working with the Texas Tech Red Raider staff. In his last two years in Lubbock he was Chief of Staff and an Assistant Athletics Director.

At Tech he served as unit coordinator during his first season and Director of Player Personnel his next three seasons, before assuming the chief of staff position. He oversaw the entire recruiting process for the football program and assisted in the organization and execution of football camps.

Additionally, Emerick served as the liaison between the football program and the Texas Tech overall department, specifically in academics, compliance, media relations and marketing areas.

Emerick, a 2002 political science graduate of the University of Kentucky, was a college scouting intern with the Houston Texans during the franchise's first season in 2002. Prior to his stint with the Texans, he was the recruiting and

Corey Edmond

Director of Performance Enhancement

Year in College Athletics: 20th

Year at Arizona: Eighth

Arizona's football program under Mike Stoops includes a high priority on player development, and the leadership in that focus starts with Corey Edmond, director of performance enhancement.

His efforts earned him 2009 semifinals for strength and conditioning coach of the year by footballcoop.com.

He has been a key since Mike Stoops took over the program, joining the UA staff in January 2004. He came from the University of Oklahoma where he had been an assistant strength and conditioning coach working directly with the football program since 1999.

At Arizona he was promoted to director of performance enhancement in early 2005 and serves as the football program's chief strength and conditioning coach. He also has worked with the UA men's and women's basketball teams, among others, during his tenure.

His work has produced dramatic improvement for Arizona football's physical status. In the past five years 15 players were drafted by NFL teams, in no small part due to their physical development. The team's changeover in physical growth and the work ethic that achieved it is clear. Three Cats were drafted in 2011, one a slender H-back later molded into a second-round defensive end, Brooks Reed.

Edmond, 41, has previous director's experience as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga from 1995-99. Prior to that, he worked directly with the football program as an assistant coach for three years, working with defensive ends and linebackers at UTC from 1993 to 1995.

A 1993 North Carolina State graduate, Edmond played three years for the Wolfpack from 1987-90, appearing in the Peach, Copper and All-American Bowls, then signed a 1991 free-agent contract with the then Houston Oilers. He stayed with the organization for two years then returned to complete degree studies at N.C. State.

Edmond, a native of Sussex, Va., was a starting inside linebacker for N.C. State against Arizona in the 1989 Copper Bowl in Arizona Stadium (now the Insight Bowl in Phoenix), making five tackles including one for a loss in the game the Cats won, 17-10.

Edmond and his wife, Laurie, have two children, Leah and Darren. Laurie works with the athletic department's directed-study academic component.

Brian Odom

Associate Director, Performance Enhancement

Year in College Athletics: Seventh

Year at Arizona: Seventh

Odom, 30, works closely with director Corey Edmond in coaching football student-athletes. He was promoted to the associate director of performance enhancement in January 2007.

He joined the staff in July 2005 and assisted with football as well as with other UA student-athlete strength programs during his first 18 months in the program.

He began his career as a football graduate assistant at Missouri in January 2005. As a player at Oklahoma, Odom was a redshirt on the 2000 Sooners squad that won the National Championship and Big 12 titles. He won the 2000 Iron Man Award given by strength coaches Jerry Schmidt, Corey Edmond and Mark Hill for performance in the weight room.

He lettered on Oklahoma's 2001 Cotton Bowl champion team, and then was the starting tailback three years (2002-04) at Southeastern Oklahoma State, where he earned All-Lone Star Conference first-team honors and his degree in December 2004.

Odom was married to the former Mackenzie McCulley on June 12, 2004. The couple has a son, Benjamin, born in April 2009.

Kris Heavner

Offensive Graduate Assistant * First Year in Coaching

Heavner was appointed offensive graduate assistant in February 2011 and begins his coaching career at his alma mater. He has been involved with the program as a player or volunteer aide for nine years.

He has been an office aide for Mike Stoops' staff for the past three years and has been involved in Arizona football since his true freshman year as a quarterback in 2003. He finished his playing career in 2007 as a four-year letterman.

He'll work closely with quarterbacks coach Frank Scelfo.

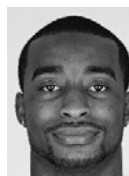

He earned The Sporting News Pac-10 all-freshman honors after taking over the starting QB role four games into the year, finishing with eight starts and a then UA-freshman record of 1,501 passing yards, with eight TDs. He had six starts in 2004 before transferring to Baylor for the fall of 2005, but returned to Arizona for spring ball 2006. He ended up playing in 22 games.

Heavner prepped at Lyndon B. Johnson High School in Johnson city, Texas, earning first-team AP Class 2A all-state honors his senior year.

He graduated from the UA in 2008 with a degree in sociology. He was born Sept. 24, 1984, in Fredericksburg, Texas.

Cam Nelson

Video Aide * First Year

Nelson, 23, joined the staff in summer 2011 as an ancillary aide and plans to enter graduate school and begin a coaching career in the near future. He volunteered during spring ball as an aide while completing his undergraduate degree at the University.

Nelson was a four-year letterman and 38-game starter after breaking into the lineup as a true freshman in 2006. He took over starting duties his sophomore year as a strong safety. He was the free safety in his senior year and played in a total of 50 games for the Cats.

He completed his career with 208 tackles, 11 PBUs and an interception. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors as a junior and a Player of the Week honor as a senior (vs. UCLA).

Nelson was a noted player at Dallas Kimball High School, earning first-team AP All-State honors as a senior in 2006.

Nelson was born May 28, 1988.

2011 Arizona Football

Tanous Farhat
Assistant Director, Operations & Recruiting

Farhat enters his fourth season with Mike Stoops' staff and serves as assistant director of football operations.

He joined the program in June 2008 after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three years at Salpointe Catholic High School in Tucson, helping in his first season as a recruiting aide.

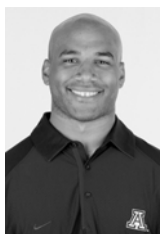

In his position he helps with the administration of the program including advance contact for team travel operations, assisting with on-campus recruiting visits, management of the prospect database, and coordinating correspondence with prospective recruits and their families. Additionally, he serves as the assistant director for UA's summer football camps.

Farhat, 26, was instrumental in the planning and coordination of Arizona's participation in the 2008 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2009 Holiday Bowl and the 2010 Alamo Bowl.

A graduate of Salpointe Catholic, Farhat lettered three years in football, and one year in baseball. He went on to play at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, Calif., before returning to the UA. He earned a degree in communication and business management from the UA in 2008.

The roots of the Pac-12 go back to 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting in Portland, Ore. Original membership consisted of four schools – the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now OSU). Athletics play began in 1916 and one year later, Washington State College (WSU) was accepted, followed by Stanford University in 1918. In 1922 the PCC added the University of Southern California and Idaho, with Montana joining in 1924.

In 1928 UCLA was added. In 1950, Montana resigned to join the Mountain State Conference with the nine-team PCC continuing through 1958. The PCC was dissolved in 1959 the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed, with Cal, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Washington. WSU was added in 1962 and the two Oregon schools joined in 1964. In 1968 the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

In July 1978 Arizona and Arizona joined and the Pacific-10 Conference became the reality that it is today. Commissioners have been Edwin N. Atherton (1940-43), Victor O. Schmidt (1944-58), Thomas J. Hamilton (1958-70), Wiles Hallock (1971-82), Thomas C. Hansen (1983-2008) and Larry Scott (2009 to present).

In June 2010, the University of Colorado and University of Utah were extended and accepted invitations to join the new Pac-12 effective with the 2011 fall competitive calendar. For football the league was split into North and South Divisions, with the two new members joining UA, ASU, USC and UCLA in the South.

The Pac-12 is quartered in Walnut Creek, Calif. Its web site can be found at www.pac-12.org. Phone: 925-932-4411. Commissioner: Larry Scott.

Pac-12 Bowl Tie-Ins for 2011-12

The new Pac-12 starts play with ties to seven bowl games in 2011 and early 2012. The Pac-12 Football Championship Game Dec. 2 will determine the league's No. 1 bowl representative.

The Pac-12 has agreements with the Rose Bowl presented by Citi, which is the destination for the Pac-12 champion, unless said champion is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final Bowl Championship Series rankings. If that were the case, the Pac-12 champion would play in the BCS National Championship Game hosted by the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Regardless of the disposition of the Pac-12 champion, a second Pac-12 team may be selected for an at-large berth in the Bowl Championship Series in any given year and other Pac-12 bowl partner arrangements provide for that occurrence.

In addition to the Rose Bowl presented by Vizio, Pac-12 bowl partners include the Valero Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, the Bridgepoint Education Holiday Bowl in San Diego, the Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso, the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas and the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco.

The 2011-12 Pac-12 bowls by selection order:

2010 Season in Review

Game 1: Arizona 41, Toledo 2 (ESPN)

Sept. 3, 2010 – Glass Bowl, Toledo – Attendance: 25,907

Kickoff: 8 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:03 – Weather: 72, partly cloudy

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) -Nick Foles threw for 360 yards and accounted for three touchdowns to help Arizona pound Toledo 41-2 in its season opener on a Friday night. Foles tossed two TD passes and ran for another score as the Wildcats recorded their first road victory outside the Pac-10 in nine seasons. Nic Grigsby added two touchdown runs. Foles completed 32 of 37 passes with one deflected interception. Foles completed five passes for 58 yards and a score on the opening drive, but the Wildcats didn't do much after that until late in the first half. Grigsby scored on a nifty 36-yard run, cutting across the middle and outracing two Rockets to corner of the end zone, capping a nine-play, 91-yard drive and giving Arizona a 14-2 lead. One play later, Derek Earls picked off Austin Dantin's pass over the middle to get the ball back for the Wildcats. Foles scored on a 1-yard run with just 17 seconds left in the half, making it 21-2. Arizona's speedy bunch of receivers seemed to be open on nearly play. Juron Criner led the way, finishing with 11 catches for 187 yards and a touchdown. Arizona's young defense, with seven new starters, did a nice job limiting the Rockets to 80 yards rushing, including just 16 yards in the first half. Toledo had the top offense in the Mid-American Conference a year prior, but it did little right against the Wildcats. Dantin was 14-of-23 passing for 103 yards. Toledo's only score of the night came when Arizona lineman Conan Amituanai was called for holding in the end zone, for a safety. It was the first time a Pac-10 team played a game on the road at a Mid-American Conference stadium.

Game 2: Arizona 52, The Citadel 6 (KWBA/FCS)

Sept. 11, 2010 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 54,814

Kickoff: 7 p.m. – Time of Game: 2:57 – Weather: 90, thin clouds

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)-Nic Grigsby rushed for three touchdowns, including a career-long 62-yard scoring run, and Arizona routed The Citadel 52-6 in the Wildcats' home opener on Saturday night. Nick Foles completed 17 of 22 for passes for 214 yards and one touchdown before calling it a night early in the third quarter as the Wildcats (2-0) rolled for 489 yards. Grigsby rushed for 107 yards on 11 carries and notched his career rushing TD to 25, tied for third-most in Arizona history. The Citadel, a member of the Football Championship Subdivision, played a Pac-10 team for the first time. Matt Thompson, freshman quarterback in a triple-option offense, fumbled the ball twice to set up Arizona touchdowns late in the first half and early in the second. Arizona third-stringer Greg Nwoko gained 72 yards in seven carries, including touchdown runs of 23 and 3 yards. Sam Keeler's 39-yard field goal with 6:55 left in the third quarter for The Citadel provided the first offensive points against Arizona in 2010. Keeler also had a 23-yarder. After a slow start, Arizona scored on consecutive possessions at the end of the first quarter and start of the second. Foles' 44-yard pass to Juron Criner highlighted a six-play, 60-yard drive that put the Wildcats up 7-0 on Grigsby's 3-yard scoring run. Arizona went 84-yards on 12 plays the next time it had the ball. Foles threw to Bug Wright in the back of the end zone for the touchdown to make it 14-0 with 12:58 left to go in the half. Alex Zendejas' 41-yard field goal with 2:25 left in the half made it 17-0. The first play after the subsequent kickoff, Thompson fumbled and Paul Vassallo recovered for Arizona at The Citadel 22 and Foles threw over the middle to Wright to the 1-yard line, and Grigsby put the Wildcats up 24-0 25 seconds before the half.

Game 3 – Arizona 34, Iowa 27 (ESPN)

Sept. 18, 2010 - Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 57,864

Kickoff: 7:35 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:34 – Weather: 97, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Nick Foles hit William Wright with a late 4-yard touchdown pass and No. 24 Arizona held its ground in the national spotlight with a 34-27 win over ninth-ranked Iowa. Arizona jumped out to a 20-point halftime lead behind a slew of big plays that included a blocked punt, Travis Cobb's 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and an interception returned 85 yards by Trevin Wade for another score. The Wildcats moved 72 yards in nine plays in the second half for the winning score, then sealed the defining victory with four straight sacks of Iowa QB Ricky Stanzi. Arizona held Iowa to a quick three-and-out on its first drive, then David Roberts broke through to block Ryan Donahue's punt, which Marquis Flowers recovered at the Hawkeyes 8. Three plays later, Foles hit David Douglas on a 5-yard slant for a touchdown. Iowa was marching on its second drive, but receiver Marvin McNutt Jr. had the ball slip through his hands and it fell right to Wade, who had a clear shot to the end zone for an 85-yard score. The Hawkeyes moved 93 yards for a 4-yard touchdown pass from Stanzi to Jewel Hampton, the first touchdown against Arizona in 2010. Then, boom! Cobb burst through a on the ensuing kickoff and was gone, 100 yards for a touchdown that put Arizona up 21-7. Tacking on two field goals by Alex Zendejas, including a career-long-matching 47-yarder, Arizona had a seemingly comfortable 27-7 halftime lead. But Iowa stymied UA's offense in the third quarter and pulled within 13 points on a 37-yard touchdown pass from Stanzi to Derrell Johnson-Koulianos, and then recovered a muffed punt by Bug Wright at the Wildcats 18. Stanzi hit McNutt on a backpedaling touchdown pass at the edge of the end zone on the next play, making it 27-21. Broderick Binns followed with his an at-the-line INT and return for a score, but Iowa missed the PAT. Then it was Foles' turn, completing 4 of 5 passes on the final drive, hitting Wright for the decisive score with 3:57 left. UA got to Stanzi to seal it.

Game 4 – Arizona 10, California 9 (KWBA/KGUN/FSAZ)

Sept. 25, 2010 - Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 51,906

Kickoff: 7 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:03 – Weather: 94, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Just when No. 14 Arizona seemed headed for a crushing loss, Nick Foles and Juron Criner finally brought the Wildcats' offense to life. Foles threw a 3-yard pass over the middle to Criner with 1:11 to play for the game's only touchdown and Arizona escaped with a 10-9 victory over California in their Pac-10 opener. The score was set up by Foles' 51-yard pass to Criner, questionable for the game because of a turf toe injury. The 6-foot-4 Criner fought off California's Darian Hagan, who had played smothering pass defense all night, on the big play. The winning seven-play, 77-yard drive came after California's Giorgio Tavecchio missed a 40-yard field goal try with 2:37 to play. Arizona moved to 4-0 for the first time since 1998. The Wildcats clinched the victory when Kevin Riley's pass bounced off the hands of Marvin Jones and was intercepted by Joseph Perkins. Perkins fumbled but Robert Golden recovered for Arizona. It appeared that Tavecchio's field goals of 25, 40 and 23 yards would be enough for the Bears (2-2), who had shut down Arizona's prolific offense. The Wildcats helped out with 10 penalties for 99 yards. Foles completed 25 of 39 passes for 212 yards but had two critical first-half turnovers. His fumble on a sack by Cal's Cameron Jordan on the final play of the first quarter led to the Bears' first field goal. Then, in the final seconds of the half, he was intercepted in the end zone after Arizona had driven to the Cal 13. Shane Vereen rushed for 102 yards in 27 carries for UC, a workhorse as the Bears drove downfield in the final minutes. But Tavecchio's 40-yard field goal try was wide right. Tavecchio also had a 40-yard try bounce off the right upright in the third quarter. Arizona's first score came after a defensive stop and Alex Zendejas' 46-yard field goal with 10:16 left in the third quarter.

Game 5: Oregon State 29, Arizona 27 (Versus)

Oct. 9, 2010 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 56,054

Kickoff: 4 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:19 – Weather: 84, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - The Wildcats' Nick Foles completed 35 of 46 for 440 yards and three touchdowns, but Oregon State held on to upset No. 9 Arizona 29-27 behind its own signal caller, Ryan Katz. The sophomore threw for 393 yards and two touchdowns, sneaked across for another score and the Beavers held on. Katz completed 30 of 42 against an Arizona defense that had been ranked No. 2 nationally, giving up 230.8 yards per game, and three times scrambled for a first down on third-down situations. The Wildcats, in the top 10 for the first time since the 1999 preseason, never led. Foles' 12-yard touchdown pass to Keola Antolin cut the lead to 29-27 with 1:52 to play but OSU recovered the subsequent onside kick attempt. Arizona got the ball on its own 20 with 2 seconds left and tried to use a short pass and a series of laterals to score. But Antolin was stopped at midfield to finish Oregon State's fifth consecutive victory in Tucson. The teams combined for 1,027 yards in a game that featured five touchdown plays of 33 yards or longer. Jacquizz Rodgers rushed for 92 yards in 25 carries and caught three passes for 41 yards. His 1-yard touchdown run with 5:46 to play put the Beavers up 29-20. Foles connected on touchdown passes of 45, 33 and 12 yards but Katz matched him all the way. The Beavers' Markus Wheaton caught seven for 113 yards. UA's Juron Criner had 12 catches for a career-high 179 yards. The Wildcats took the second-half kickoff and went 66 yards in just two minutes for a score, but OSU responded with an 11-play, 65-yard scoring drive. Nic Grigsby took a swing pass from Foles and weaved through traffic 41 yards for a touchdown that cut the Beavers' lead to 23-20 with 3:20 left in the third quarter. OSU responded with a 10-play, 80-yard drive, culminating with Quizz Rodgers' touchdown run.

Game 6: Arizona 44, Washington State 14 (Versus)

Oct. 16, 2010 – Martin Stadium – Attendance: 23,955

Kickoff: 4:30 p.m. – Time of Game: 2:57 – Weather: 50, High clouds

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)--With quarterback Nick Foles knocked out of the game with a knee injury, No. 17 Arizona turned to running backs Keola Antolin and Nic Grigsby for offense. Antolin ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns, and Grigsby added 66 yards and another score as the Wildcats beat Washington State 24-7. Foles, the league's leading passer, left in the second quarter with a sprained knee. Arizona ran 47 times for 142 yards but finished 352 yards of offense and 24 points against a defense that was giving up more than 500 yards and 42 per game. The Cougars recorded six sacks. On the flip side, Washington State had just 297 offensive yards and failed to reach double digits in scoring for the first time in 2010. Matt Scott completed 14 of 20 passes for 139 yards, but was intercepted once and sacked five times. WSU's Jeff Tuel completed 18 of 32 passes for 257 yards, despite being sacked seven times. Freshman Marquess Wilson caught six passes for 131 yards. Antolin scored on a 9-yard run late in the first for a 7-0 Arizona lead. Scott took over mid-drive in the second period and directed the team over the final 37 yards, with Antolin running up the middle from the 1-yard line for a 14-0 lead. The Wildcats got a break early in the third when Washington State punter Reid Forrest fumbled the snap deep in his own territory. Khyri Knowles dove on the ball at the 7 and, on the first play, Grigsby ran in for a 21-0 lead. Washington State got on the scoreboard when Tuel hit Wilson with a 23-yard touchdown strike late in the third. But the Cougars blew a chance to tighten the game after they stopped Antolin on fourth-and-1 on the first play of the fourth quarter. Running back James Montgomery took a handoff and then threw a backward pass that was deflected by Arizona's Brooks Reed and recovered by D'Aundre Reed. Alex Zendejas eventually kicked a 40-yard field goal for a 24-7 lead. Tuel connected with Wilson for an 83-yard gain midway through the fourth, giving the Cougars the ball on Arizona's 12 and Wilson the fourth 100-yard game of his rookie season. But Tuel was intercepted in the end zone to kill the threat.

2011 Arizona Football

Game 7: Arizona 44, Washington 14 (ESPN)

Oct. 23, 2010 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 56,244

Kickoff: 7:15 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:09 – Weather: 65, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Nic Grigsby and Keola Antolin ran for two touchdowns apiece, Matt Scott had no trouble replacing Nick Foles and No. 15 Arizona easily Washington 44-14 in one of the Cats' best games of the season. Arizona overcame occasionally poor tackling with a balanced offense and by harassing Jake Locker into an ineffective game. Scott more than held his own with a performance that earned him Pac-10 Player of the Week honors. He threw for 233 yards and two touchdowns, including a fumble-the-snap, 21-yard heave to Juron Criner in the fourth quarter, and added 65 yards on seven carries. Locker finished 17 of 29 for 183 yards with a touchdown and lost 24 yards on six carries before being replaced by Keith Price early in the fourth quarter. Antolin finished with 114 yards on 14 carries and Criner caught eight passes for 108 yards to give Arizona its best start since opening the 1998 season 6-1. Arizona made sure it didn't get tripped up by steamrolling Washington's noodle-strainer defense - 199 points the past five games - for 467 total yards. The only question mark came early; Taimi Tutogi fumbled on Arizona's opening drive and Locker marched the Huskies for a quick score, rolling left and throwing for a 26-yard touchdown to Jermaine Kearse in the corner of the endzone. After that, all Arizona almost all the time. Led by Scott, the Wildcats carved up Washington's 98th-ranked defense, piling up 356 total yards on their way to a 30-14 halftime lead. Scott looked a lot like Locker on Arizona's first score, rolling left and throwing across his body for a 17-yard touchdown to David Roberts. He then led the Wildcats to a 29-yard field goal by Alex Zendejas and set up Antolin's first TD, a 1-yard dive left, with a 32-yard rumble on an option. Locker tried to rally the Huskies by setting up Chris Polk's 7-yard touchdown run, but the defense parted on the next play, allowing Antolin to burst up the middle for a 78-yard touchdown.

Game 8: Arizona 29, UCLA 21 (FSN)

Oct. 30, 2010 – Rose Bowl - Attendance: 53,408

Kickoff: 12:30 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:16 – Weather: 70, Ptlly cloudy

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) - Backup Matt Scott had another big game, passing for a career-high 319 yards, and No. 15 Arizona held off UCLA 29-21 on Saturday to remain in league contention entering November. Scott was 24 of 36 with one interception and one touchdown, plus carried 12 times for 71 yards. Keola Antolin rushed for 111 yards on 23 carries for the Wildcats in their best start since 1998. Richard Brehaut passed for a career-best 228 yards and two touchdowns for the Bruins. UCLA entered ranked 117th among the 120 FBS schools in yards passing with an average of just 104.6 per game. The Wildcats rolled up a season-high 583 yards and 32 first downs and held the Bruins to 299 yards and 15 first downs, but didn't put the game away until the final minute. UCLA played without starting quarterback Kevin Prince, who underwent season-ending knee surgery Oct. 23, and standout linebacker Patrick Larimore, sidelined with an injured left shoulder. Completely outplayed in the first half, UCLA trimmed Arizona's lead to 19-14 on the fourth play of the third quarter on a 68-yard completion from Brehaut to Randall Carroll - the Bruins' longest touchdown pass since 2007. But the Wildcats responded with an 80-yard drive capped by Greg Nwoko's 1-yard run. Neither team threatened again until Brehaut's 49-yard pass to Josh Smith on a flea flicker with 14:24 remaining capped an 86-yard drive and moved UCLA within five points. UCLA reached the Arizona 34 with 9 1/2 minutes to play, but Smith lost 9 yards on a flanker reverse and the Bruins were forced to punt. The Bruins got the ball with 3:14 remaining at their 20 after a punt, but turned the ball over on downs, putting the Wildcats in position for Alex Zendejas' 30-yard field goal with 1:18 left. The Bruins reached their 46 before Brehaut fumbled while being sacked and Sione Tuihalamaka recovered.

Game 9: Stanford 42, Arizona 17 (ABC)

Nov. 6, 2010 – Stanford Stadium – Attendance: 43,506
Kickoff: 5 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:18 – Weather: 65, clear

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) - Andrew Luck threw for 293 yards and two touchdowns, leading No. 10 Stanford to a 42-17 victory in a showdown with 13th-ranked Arizona. Stepan Taylor added four short touchdown runs for the Cardinal, who won easily in the first meeting with Arizona when both teams were ranked. Luck led the offense, which put up six touchdowns and 516 yards against the stingiest defense in the Pac-10. Chris Owusu had nine catches for 165 yards and a score, as well as a key 12-yard run. Stanford also allowed no sacks to a team that led the league with 27 coming into the game. The defense also did a good job against the Wildcats, who didn't get the offense moving until it was too late, in Nick Foles' return from injury. Foles threw for 248 yards, one touchdown and one interception, with his biggest success coming late in no-huddle. Keola Antolin ran for 86 yards and another score. The Cardinal built a 21-3 halftime lead and didn't let up. Stanford scored on its opening drive of the second half on a 5-yard shovel pass from Luck to Tyler Gaffney to make it 28-3. Stanford then answered Arizona's first touchdown of the game - a 7-yard pass from Foles to Juron Criner - with a 78-yard drive capped by Taylor's third TD run to make it 35-10. Taylor added his fourth TD with 3:23 to go to make it 42-17. On the opening drive of the game, Owusu got behind the Wildcats' secondary for a 45-yard touchdown pass from Luck to make it 7-0. Taylor added a pair of TD runs in the second quarter to build the lead to 21-3 at the break. The Wildcats blew a couple of good scoring opportunities. They drove to the 20 on their opening drive but Foles was called for intentional grounding at the 34 and Arizona punted. A.J. Simmons dropped a potential first-down catch at the 10, stalling another drive that led to a field goal by Alex Zendejas. Foles then drove Arizona to the 27 late in the half before he was intercepted by Richard Sherman.

Game 10: USC 24, Arizona 21 (ABC)

Nov. 13, 2010 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 54,722
Kickoff: 6 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:23 - Weather: 69, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Marc Tyler ran for 160 yards on 31 carries to help pace Southern California over No. 18 Arizona, 24-21. The loss dropped UA into a tie with USC at third. Matt Barkley passed for one touchdown and sneaked for another as the Trojans jumped ahead 14-0 and never relinquished the lead. UA's Nick Foles threw for 353 yards and three touchdowns, the last an 11-yarder to David Douglas with 1:01 to play. But USC recovered the subsequent onside kick to preserve the victory. USC, which won its sixth straight in Tucson, rushed for 206 yards and had the ball almost 15 minutes longer than the Wildcats. Foles completed 32 of 48 with no interceptions, while Barkley was 21 of 35 for 170 yards with one interception. Neither team punted in the first half as USC took a 21-14 lead. Barkley and Foles each completed 13 of their first 15 passes, but a fumble by the Arizona quarterback and a missed 34-yard field goal by the Wildcats' Alex Zendejas paved the way for an early 14-0 Trojans lead. Arizona, which used a hurry-up offense throughout, went 80 yards in nine plays to cut it to 14-7, Foles throwing five yards to David Douglas for the score. The Trojans then used up almost nine minutes with a 17-play, 66-yard drive that ended with Tyler's 3-yard touchdown run to put USC ahead 21-7 with 3:43 left in the half. With the drive stalled at the Arizona 11, the USC field goal team went on the field, but Mitch Mustain took the snap from center and threw to Jordan Cameron for the first down. Tyler scored two plays later on a 3-yard run. Arizona quickly drove for a touchdown before the half ended. With a couple of big third-down catches by Juron Criner, Arizona drove to the Trojans 19 to open the second half, but Douglas fumbled at the 15 and USC recovered. The Trojans used up another 6 1/2 minutes driving to the Arizona 13, where Joe Houston's 30-yard field goal boosted the lead to 24-14 with 3:35 left in the third. UA got a late TD throw from Foles to Douglas, but time ran out after the onside kick didn't work.

Game 11: Oregon 48, Arizona 29 (ESPN)

Nov. 26, 2010 – Autzen Stadium – Attendance: 59,990

Kickoff: 4 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:39 – Weather: 48, light rain

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)--Darron Thomas passed for three touchdowns and ran for another and top-ranked Oregon earned at least a share of a second consecutive Pac-10 title with a 48-29 victory over No. 20 Arizona. LaMichael James shrugged off talk of an injury to run for 126 yards and two scores for the Ducks (11-0, 8-0), who trailed 19-14 at halftime but surged in the second half to stay on course for a trip to the BCS national title game. It was the third straight loss for Arizona (7-4, 4-4), which ultimately couldn't keep up with the Ducks' speedy spread-option. With temperatures in the mid-40s and periodic rain showers, there were concerns that the Wildcats would have trouble with their passing game, which had been averaging about 300 yards a game. But Nick Foles passed for a career-high 448 yards and three touchdowns, including an 85-yard score to Juron Criner. Thomas completed 14 of 24 passes for 148 yards and an interception. Oregon finished with 537 yards total offense, but Arizona kept up with 506 yards. Oregon was playing catch-up the entire first half and trailed for just the second time this season at the break. But the Ducks bounced back early in the second half with Josh Huff's 85-yard scoring run, the longest play from scrimmage for the Ducks in 2010. While the conversion failed, Oregon had a 20-19 lead. Arizona hurt itself on Oregon's next series, when they were called offside on Rob Beard's missed 42-yard field goal attempt. That gave the Ducks a first down and Thomas followed with a 20-yard touchdown run to make it 27-19. The Wildcats cut the lead on Alex Zendejas' 41-yard field goal, but James ran for a pair of scores, one for 13 yards and another for a yard, to make it 48-22.

Game 12: Arizona State 30, Arizona 29 (2 OT) (ESPN)

Dec. 2, 2010 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 56,253

Kickoff: 6 p.m. – Time of Game: 4:03 – Weather: 70, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Arizona State blocked PATs at the end of regulation and the second overtime for an improbable victory over rival Arizona. ASU rallied from an 11-point deficit in the fourth quarter and broke through for a blocked extra point with 27 seconds left in regulation to keep the score tied at 20-all. Cameron Marshall scored on a 2-yard run in the second overtime and David Douglas of Arizona answered with a 9-yard touchdown run, but James Brooks got through to block Alex Zendejas' extra point to send Arizona to its fourth straight defeat. Thomas Weber kicked five field goals for ASU. The 84th version of the Territorial Cup game was filled with some oddities. The Pac-10's top two passing teams, with quarterbacks who threw for a combined 828 yards the previous week, struggled from the onset, with Weber provided the only first-half points, hitting from 52 and 36 yards to put the Sun Devils up 6-0. Arizona, after 88 yards and eight punts in the first half, finally came to life in the second. Nick Foles hit Terrence Miller on a pump-fake 38-yard pass down the middle, then hooked up with Juron Criner on the next play, pinpointing a pass in the corner of the end zone for a 28-yard touchdown. Criner made it 14-6 late in the third quarter, with a leap for a 52-yard touchdown. But Weber hit a 38-yard field goal to open the fourth quarter, then Brock Osweiler led ASU down the field for a 3-yard touchdown pass to Mike Willie, adding a 2-point conversion that put the Sun Devils up 17-14. Arizona State's defense held on a fourth down near Arizona's 30 on the next drive and Weber nailed a 40-yard field goal to make it 20-14 with 3 minutes left. Foles answered by hitting Douglas on 5-yard touchdown pass, but ASU blocked the PAT, adding another wild chapter to a rivalry already filled with them.

Game 13: Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10 (ESPN)

Dec. 29, 2010 – Alamo Bowl, San Antonio. Atten: 57,593

Kickoff: 8:15 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:23.

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - Justin Blackmon caught two touchdown passes, including a 71-yard strike, and No. 16 Oklahoma State finished its first 11-win season with a 36-10 victory over Arizona in the Alamo Bowl. Blackmon, the Biletnikoff Award winner as the nation's top receiver, set an NCAA record with his 12th straight game with at least 100 yards receiving and a touchdown. The sophomore caught nine passes for 117 yards in perhaps his last college game. Brandon Weeden was 25 of 41 for 240 yards for Oklahoma State (11-2). Oklahoma State, which led the nation in total offense, never trailed and scored at least 33 points for the 11th time in 2010. Arizona (7-6) ended the year with five straight losses. Nick Foles completed 32 of 50 passes for 280 yards and a touchdown, but he threw three interceptions, including one returned by Markelle Martin for a 62-yard score. The Wildcats had their chances early. But six possessions inside Oklahoma State territory in the first half resulted in just one touchdown. After defensive stops by the Cats' defense – which held OSU to 72 yards rushing – UA handed it back enough times to spell doom. Blackmon broke a Larry Fitzgerald record for the most receiving yards by a sophomore on the game's biggest play. After Arizona couldn't convert a fourth down at the Cowboys' 29-yard line on its opening possession, Weeden found Blackmon practically uncovered down the sideline for a 71-yard TD. Alex Zandejas' 42-yard field goal in Q3 put Arizona back within two scores, and its only other score came in the first quarter when Juron Criner caught a 5-yard touchdown from Foles. A muffed punt after a defensive stop by the Cats to open the game gave OSU a 26-yard field for the first score and set the tone for the night. UA receiver David Douglas earned the bowl's Sportsmanship Award as the Cats' outstanding player. The Cats, strong all year with the pass rush, did not get a sack. Top RB Keola Antolin was knocked from the game in the first series with a hit to the head.

2010 Football Review Notes...

...Arizona's third consecutive bowl appearance (Valero Alamo Bowl) matched the school's best streak of bowl games (1992-94)... Arizona rose to as high as No. 9 in the Associated Press poll after opening the year 7-1, its best start since 1998...

...Wide receiver Juron Criner, a senior this year, was a unanimous first-team All-Pac-10 selection in 2010 after his 83-catch, 1,233-yard season. He was a second-team Sports Illustrated and CBSSports.com All-America pick. He'll be working his way up Arizona's career receiving charts in 2011, opening the season at No. 5 (TDs), No. 7 (receptions) and No. 9 (receiving yards)...

...Arizona's 439 yards per game total offense rated No. 3 in school history behind 471.9 (1999) and 444.9 (1998) squads led by Keith Smith, Ortege Jenkins, Dennis Northcutt and Trung Canidate, among others...

UA returns most of the figures in a pass offense that generated 307 yards per game in 2010, just under the school record of 308.5. Nick Foles' individual average of 290 yards per game tracked in behind Willie Tuitama's school mark of 308 ypg set in 2007. Foles' 3,191 yards rank No. 3 behind Tuitama's 3,683 that year and Jason Johnson's 3,327 in 2002...

Running back Nic Grigsby finished his UA career in 2010 with 2,857 rushing yards, No. 6 in UA history. His career rushing TD total of 28 put him at No. 2 in that category... Sophomore-to-be receiver Richard Morrison had six catches in the Alamo Bowl and just missed giving Arizona a group of nine receivers with 20 or more catches. The eight is a program high, matching the 2007 outfit...

...Senior defensive end Ricky Elmore led the Pac-10 with 11 sacks in 2010, which gave him a career total of 25.5, second-most in UA history behind Tedy Bruschi's 55 sacks from 1992-95... Elmore was ranked No. 7 in the regular season with .92 sacks per game... He (6th round) and fellow DEs Brooks Reed (2nd round) and D'Aundre Reed (7th round) each were drafted by NFL teams in April...

...The three UA quarterbacks – Nick Foles, Matt Scott and Bryson Beirne – shared the teams' Offensive MVP honor in 2010. Defensive winner was Brooks Reed, while head-hunter and gunner Mike Turner won the special teams' honor. Transfer receiver Dan Buckner won the offensive scout team player of the year honor, while frosh DT Aiulua Fanene won the defensive scout team POY honor. Center Colin Baxter, who missed the bowl game after knee surgery, won the program's Tedy Bruschi Award for overall excellence and take-no-quarter play... Team captains for 2010 were Baxter, Foles, Brooks Reed and defensive tackle Lolomana Mikaele...

...2011 senior CB Trevin Wade takes a career total of 10 interceptions for 203 yards and two scoring returns into the season. He had only one pick in 2010 but says he's back in form for a final go-round. Freshman Shaquille Richardson intercepted two passes in his first career start (for Wade) at WSU, matching Wade's freshman year feat against NAU off the bench...

...Arizona averaged 55,408 fans per game in 2010, its third-best season in history... Stoops' teams have been above the 52,000 mark (for 57,400-seat Arizona Stadium) each of his seven years in Tucson...

Dick Tomey, Arizona's Winningest Coach

The end of the 2000 season saw Dick Tomey resign after 14 years at Arizona. More than two dozen counterparts had coached at the other nine league schools during his tenure. Tomey led Arizona to its two best seasons and left a strong legacy as a coach-educator and the winningest coach in UA history. He later was head coach at San Jose State for five years. At Arizona:

- Nine winning seasons; overall UA Coaching Record: 95-64-4
- Top 10 in career victories by active Division I-A coaches at time
- Pacific-10 Conference Record: 60-49-4
- No. 8 on all-time Pac-10 coaching victories chart at time
- One of four coaches to win 12 games in 85 years of Pac-10
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 1992
- 20 All-Americans, 43 first-team All-Pac-10 players; Four Pac-10 POYs
- 1998 Provost Award for Outstanding Teaching
- Graduation Rate of 67 percent in final report; best in Pac-10, 10th in nation
- Seven Bowl Games, four bowl victories
- Arizona's highest national final ranking (No. 4 in 1998)
- AFCA Western Regional Coach of the Year 1982
- Eight Major National Player Awards; Four Morris Trophy winners

Conference Affiliation Notes...

Arizona's first conference affiliation was with the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, founded in 1931. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State Teachers College-Flagstaff (now NAU), Arizona State Teachers College-Tempe (now ASU), New Mexico and New Mexico A&M (now New Mexico State). Subsequent additions were Texas Tech (1932-35), Texas Mines (now UTEP, 1935-61), Hardin-Simmons (1941-61) and West Texas Teachers College (now West Texas A&M, 1941-61). The league was disbanded in 1961... Arizona played as an independent in 1961, transitioning to membership in the Western Athletic Conference, which began in July 1962. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State, Utah, New Mexico, Brigham Young and Wyoming. In 1967 UTEP and Colorado State joined. Arizona and ASU departed for the Pacific-10 Conference beginning with the 1978 football season, joining California, UCLA, USC, Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State. Colorado and Utah accepted invitations to join the league in June 2010 and will commence play in the Pac-12 in 2011.

Some Historical Notes...

...Key dates in early Arizona football include the first collegiate game, against Arizona State on Thanksgiving Day in 1899, Nov. 22, when the Territorial Cup was first awarded... Another is Dec. 26, 1921, UA's first bowl appearance in the East-West Christmas Bowl in San Diego... The first game in Arizona Stadium was played against Cal Tech on Oct. 12, 1929... The first night game was against San Diego State in September 1931...

...The war years in 1943 and 1944 were not much different for Arizona than some teams nationally, with no football played. Half of the teams in final AP poll of 1943 included service teams and the service academies. There were five bowls after the 1944 season – the Rose, Orange, Cotton, Sugar and Sun. ...Some years later, the UA Student Union Memorial Building incorporated the bell from the U.S.S. Arizona, sunk during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941. An electronic rendition of the bell still tolls every 15 minutes during the day from speakers atop the UA Administration Building...

...1958 was the first year of Arizona's pending transition to the Western Athletic Conference, with it not playing enough league games (3) to qualify for the Border Conference title. That situation lasted through 1960, and Arizona played officially as an independent in 1961 before beginning WAC play in 1962...

...Arizona's first televised game was broadcast statewide on Nov. 28, 1953, with the Cats at Arizona State. The game was not a network telecast...

Arizona in the Pro Ranks

Wildcats in the Top Round of the NFL Draft

The University of Arizona has had 10 players selected in the first round of the National Football League draft, with the most recent being cornerback Antoine Cason in 2008.

The Arizona first-round selections and their draft order are:

1939 (10 th )	Walter Ring Nielsen, running back, New York Giants
1968 (26 th )	Bill Lueck, guard, Green Bay Packers
1976 (16 th )	Mike Dawson, defensive tackle, St. Louis Cardinals
1984 (7 th )	Ricky Hunley, linebacker, Cincinnati Bengals
1990 (8 th )	Chris Singleton, linebacker, New England Patriots
1990 (11 th )	Anthony Smith, defensive tackle, Oakland Raiders
1991 (27 th )	John Fina, offensive tackle, Buffalo Bills
1999 (10 th )	Chris McAlister, cornerback, Baltimore Ravens
2000 (31 st )	Trung Canidate, tailback, St. Louis Rams
2008 (27 th )	Antoine Cason, cornerback, San Diego Chargers

Arizona in the 2011 NFL Draft

Three Wildcats were picked in the April 2011 draft, giving Arizona 15 picks in the last five years. Defensive ends Brooks Reed (2nd round, Houston Texans), Ricky Elmore (6th round, Green Bay Packers) and D'Aundre Reed (7th round, Minnesota Vikings) each got the call. A number of other Wildcats were expected to negotiate free agent contracts although the NFL lockout prevented early discussions right after the draft.

Wildcats in Professional Football

Note: Players must be on regular-season active roster, taken in the most recent draft, signed for current year tryouts, or otherwise affiliated as noted, to be listed. Bold signifies active. Special thanks for research to Dave Petraska, Anthony Gimino and Frankie Acosta. Bold face indicates recent players.

Super Bowl Cats

Former UA players made 17 appearances in the Super Bowl during the past decade and Arizona has a total number of 42 overall player appearances in the NFL Championship tilt, most by starters. Three former Wildcats played in Super Bowl XLII in 2008 in Glendale, Ariz., for the most in any one season. Since retired linebacker Tedy Bruschi and offensive lineman Glenn Parker lead all UA players with five Super Bowls – all of Bruschi's with the New England Patriots and Parker in four with the Buffalo Bills and one with the New York Giants. Former Wildcat Bruschi, the NCAA career sack leader when he left college, has the best Super Bowl jewelry collection with three Championship rings as the starting middle linebacker for the Patriots in the 2000s. In 2008 starting linebacker Antonio Pierce and backup DB Michael Johnson took home championship rings for the New York Giants over Bruschi's Pats.

Here are UA Super Bowl players:

Glenn Parker, OL	5 (1991-94, 2001, Bills and Giants)
Tedy Bruschi, LB	5 (1997, 2002, 2004-05, 2008, Patriots)
Vance Johnson, WR	3 (1987-88, 1990, Broncos)
Randy Robbins, S	3 (1987-88, 1990, Broncos)
John Fina, OL	2 (1993, 1994), Bills
Ricky Hunley, LB	2 (1987-88, Broncos)
Mike Freeman, C	2 (1987-88, Broncos)
Theo Bell, WR	2 (1979-80, Steelers)
Jackie Wallace, CB	2 (1975, 1980, Vikings, Rams)
Mike Bell, RB	2010, Saints
Michael Johnson, DB	2008, Giants
Antonio Pierce, LB	2008, Giants
Lance Briggs, LB	2007, Bears

Scholar-Athlete Awards

2007 ToyoTires Pac-10 Scholar-Athlete - Spencer Larsen

A two-time first-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection, Arizona linebacker Spencer Larsen became the first league football player named in the initial group of student-athletes to receive the conference's new Scholar-Athlete Award. Larsen's 3.70 grade point average in regional development, his first-team All-Pac-10 playing honor and his exemplary citizenship and scholastic standing helped him earn the award. He led the Pac-10 with 131 tackles his senior year, led Arizona with 15.5 tackles for loss, was in on seven fumble plays (4 FR and 3 FF) and knocked down five passes. He finished his career with a total of 312 tackles. He was a 2007 finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy awarded annually to a top citizen-athlete among national collegiate football players, and an All-America selection by rivals.com (2nd team) and cfn.com (3rd).

2003 Woody Hayes Scholar-Athlete - Jason Johnson

University of Arizona senior quarterback Jason Johnson won the 2003 Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in January 2003, honoring an exemplary year as the outstanding man in Division I athletics.

Johnson, who made outstanding appearances in both the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl, earned Academic All-Pac-10 first-team quarterback honors for the second consecutive year, was a Verizon District VIII first-team Academic pick, won a berth on the American Football Coaches "Good Works Team" and completed his final year at Arizona with more than a dozen single-season, career or UA top-10 marks in passing and total offense. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player for 2002 and elected a co-captain by his teammates. He was a Canadian Football League quarterback and Grey Cup Champion for Edmonton after his graduation.

Johnson completed his undergraduate studies in 2001 with a 3.79 grade point average in business management, then was a honors graduate student in religious studies his final two semesters. Among his community activities were the Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Drug Free School Program, youth basketball coaching, Adopt a Family, Race for a Cure Cancer Walk and numerous youth-oriented speaking engagements.

1996 Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete - Wayne Wyatt

A two-year starting center on the Wildcat football teams of 1995-96 and eventually one of three team captains, Wayne Wyatt earned respectable numbers on the field. But his numbers off the field captured national attention — namely his 3.941 grade point average. He was selected as one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athletes in 1996, with an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies, which he used for dental school. Wyatt was named to the 1996 GTE Academic All-America football first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America, Arizona's fifth player to earn first-team scholastic honors.

Wyatt earned Pacific-10 All-Academic and GTE All-District 8 honors. He was honored as one of the UA's distinguished scholar-athletes, named every semester to the Dean's List and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors as well. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy in August 1995 and a master's degree in business administration in May 1997.

National Players of the Year

1990 Jim Thorpe Award

Darryll Lewis

Arizona defensive back Darryll Lewis won the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. Lewis, who was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, finished his career with 14 interceptions, played in the Hula Bowl, was a third-round NFL pick and is a regular NFL starter. He was the 1990 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year.

Lewis was a game-turning defensive back; such as the time his interception return of 70 yards for a score helped UA beat UCLA. Or his goal-line stop of scrambling Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave at the goal line to preserve another victory. Those were huge plays by a big-time player, but a few of many he provided as a four-year letterman from 1987-1990.

1993 Outland Trophy

Rob Waldrop

Wildcat defensive tackle Rob Waldrop capped a tremendous career as the winner of the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman in 1993.

Opponents double- and triple-teamed him at times in an effort to contain his pass rush and run-stopping techniques. Among his 53 tackles that year were 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. In his final two seasons, he had 18 sacks and spearheaded the play, which spawned the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname. He also won the Football Writer's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year Award, now called the Bronko Nagurski Award. He was named UPI Lineman of the Year as well.

In a superior effort at the 1994 Fiesta Bowl, Waldrop helped pin Miami with its back to the goal and came up with another sack, helping Arizona beat Miami, 29-0.

1994 Lou Groza Award

Steve McLaughlin

Arizona's Steve McLaughlin topped a remarkable four-year career in 1994 by winning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award as the nation's best — the player you want to kick one in the clutch. He certainly did in 1994, earning consensus first-team All-America honors.

He made 80 percent of his kicks during the season, including an amazing 12-of-16 from beyond 40 yards and 3-of-5 from beyond 50 yards. Subtracting a couple of monster tries at the end of periods, he was 23-of-27 from 57 yards and in. He led the Pac-10 in scoring with 95 points in 1994 and was first in the league and second nationally with 2.1 field goals per game. He kicked a career-best 54-yard field goal against California to earn an AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kick of the week. He made all 26 of his point-after kicks. He was an accomplished pooch punter from field goal formation and kicked off his final two years as well.

He finished his career with 57 field goals in 81 tries and made 112-of-119 PATs for 283 points, third on the UA's all-time scoring list.

McLaughlin acquired the 'let-me-kick-it' attitude that is so critical to the trade. He had some misses that might have turned games but kept his confidence growing. One big day for McLaughlin came when his three field goals helped beat No. 1 Washington in 1992.

1998 Mosi Tatupu Award

Chris McAlister

Arizona cornerback Chris McAlister capped an outstanding three-year Wildcat career by winning the 1998 Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award as the nation's top player in the kicking game.

McAlister, a unanimous All-America pick and finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award honoring the best collegiate defensive back that year as well, was involved in Arizona's special teams from both sides of the kick.

In 1998, he set the tone for the Cats' big-play 12-1 season by returning the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Hawai'i on the first play of the year, tying his own school record set in 1996 against UCLA. He blocked punts in each of the final two regular-season games of the year and had a third deflected punt. He returned a punt 69 yards for a score against Northeast Louisiana and returned an interception 60 yards for a score against Washington State to become only the seventh player in NCAA history to have scored on kickoff, punt and interception returns in a single season.

He was a defensive player who averaged 38 yards per game in all-purpose yardage: eight kickoff returns for a 29.5 mark, five punt returns for a 20.8 mark and five interception returns for a 12.8 figure. What it meant to the Cats for three years was like having a 12th player on the field each time McAlister took his place somewhere among the action. His 18 career interceptions placed him No. 3 on UA's all-time chart, but his special teams' play was unmatched.

2007 Jim Thorpe Award

Antoine Cason

Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason became UA's second Jim Thorpe Award winner and the latest Wildcat consensus All-American since 1999 with his superlative senior season in 2007. Among his highlight-reel plays in 2007 were interception returns of 42 yards for a score against Oregon, a 56-yard punt return for a score against the Ducks and a 60-yard interception return for a score against Oregon State. He had three other interceptions on the year to give him a career total of 15, fourth best in school history. His 165 yard on INT returns was just shy of the school record 191 yards set by Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis in 1990. Cason was a two-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection. In 2007 he was named first-team All-America by Walter Camp, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com and cfn.com. His electrifying play was no more special than his off-the-field comportment as a UA team spokesman and leader throughout his career. His 'Cason Cares' charity drive for cancer research in 2007 typified his renaissance leadership. He was Arizona's Ruby Award winner as the top male student-athlete for the 2007-08 school year. But his senior year's action on the field was special. He finished with 71 tackles, five interception, 14 passes defended, two forced fumbles, a sack and four tackles for loss. His four returns for scores (2 INT, 2 PR) set a UA standard.

National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame

Linebacker Ricky Hunley - 1998 Inductee

One of many defensive stars at Arizona over the years, All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley was a hugely physical presence in the early 1980s and became the first Wildcat elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, with induction in 1998. He turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball offer to play football at Arizona. From 1980 to 1983, Hunley was in on an amazing 566 tackles and was a consensus first-team All-American in both 1982 and 1983. He was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection and was the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. A team captain in 1983, he also earned Arizona's Most Valuable Player honor in helping lead the Wildcats to a 7-3-1 record. For several seasons, he played alongside his younger brother, LaMonte, also a Wildcat linebacker. Hunley led the Wildcats in unassisted tackles every year from 1981-83 with totals of 74, 100 and 99, respectively. He also set a school record recovering five fumbles in 1983. Now a professional coach, Hunley played in the NFL for seven years and participated in Super Bowls XXI and XXII as a Denver Bronco. He has coached at Southern California and Missouri and served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and the Minority Issues Committee of the AFCA.

Coach Jim Young - 1999 Inductee

Former University of Arizona coach Jim Young joined several other coaches — Don Coryell and Jerry Claiborne — and the likes of Herschel Walker, Billy Kilmer, John Hannah, Ross Browner and several other storied players in the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame. Young, retired in Tucson, had three successful head coaching stints, including his first at Arizona from 1973 to 1976, at Purdue from 1977 to 1981 and a tour of duty at Army from 1983 to 1990. Overall, he won more than 60 percent of his games, at 120-71-2, turning around programs at each stop. At UA, he was 31-13 and posted two 9-2 seasons in 1974 and 1975, among UA's best ever. His 1973 Arizona club finished 8-3 and tied for UA's first conference title in 40 years. At Purdue, he was 38-19-1 with three bowl victories. Coaching the Cadets, he was 51-39-1 with a 2-1 bowl record. Young, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, employed passing attacks at Arizona and Purdue and installed the wishbone at Army to reach national rushing prominence. Young completed his football career as an offensive assistant on Dick Tomey's 1992-94 Arizona staffs after Tomey talked him into delaying his retirement.

Coach Darrell Mudra - 2000 Inductee

Darrell Mudra retired from collegiate football in 1988 bringing an end to a Hall of Fame career, which boasts a 200-81-4 record and two national championships. He started his collegiate head-coaching career at Adams State in 1959 and led the team to the 1962 Mineral Bowl, where they defeated Northern Illinois 23-20. In 1963 he became the head coach at North Dakota State where he successfully turned the program around from a 0-10 record the year before, to a 1964 Mineral Bowl victory. In 1965 he won his first national championship defeating Grambling 20-7 in the Pecan Bowl. He then coached the University of Arizona for two seasons and led them to the 1968 Sun Bowl. After a successful stint at Western Illinois, Mudra coached Florida State for two years before going to Eastern Illinois where he won the Division II National Championship. During Coach Mudra's tenure at Northern Iowa, he led the team to the I-AA semifinals in 1985 and 1987. The Panthers were ranked fourth nationally at the end of the 1987 season and lost to the eventual national champion Northeast Louisiana 44-41 in overtime. He was named Kodak Region 4 Coach of the Year in 1985 while at UNI. Mudra was nicknamed "Dr. Victory" because of his success at each level, but always shied away from all of the accolades, preferring to let his assistants and players take the credit.

Safety Chuck Cecil - 2009 Inductee

A two-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil starred for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties. A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions. A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection, he culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the the Pac-10 Conference Medal. He holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, one of the most electrifying moments in UA football history. Drafted in the fourth round of the 1988 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Cecil spent seven seasons in the NFL and is currently defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. Cecil has served as co-chair of the University of Arizona Medical Center Foundation campaign for UMC Trauma Center.

Defensive Tackle Rob Waldrop - 2011 Inductee

A two-time consensus All-American during his junior and senior seasons, Waldrop was the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1993, received the Outland Trophy honoring the country's top interior lineman, was voted the Top Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Writers of America (now called the Bronko Nagurski award), and was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy honoring the outstanding lineman of the year. In 1992 he was voted by opposing linemen as the Pac-10's defensive winner of the Morris Award. He earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors in 1992 and 1993 and was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week against Miami in 1992 and versus USC in 1993. He was named defensive MVP of the 1992 Sun Bowl. He earned Playboy Pigskin Preview All-America honors in 1993. During his senior season, Waldrop recorded 53 total tackles, 14 for losses, including eight sacks -- a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. His play, which helped spawn the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname, was evident in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl when he helped guide Arizona to a shutout, 29-0 victory. He spearheaded an effort which helped the Wildcats lead the nation and set a Pac-10 record with 33 rushing yards allowed per game in 1993, when Arizona led the nation in total defense. He finished his Arizona career with an amazing 164 tackles for an interior lineman, with 44 tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks, which rate fifth in UA's history. Waldrop was drafted in '94 by the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, played two seasons and later went on to a 1996 stint with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

Arizona Football Traditions

Here is a sampling of some of the University of Arizona's top athletics traditions.

“Bear Down”

The University of Arizona's most memorable athletic tradition is the slogan “Bear Down,” given to the Wildcat teams by John “Button” Salmon, student body president and varsity athlete, shortly before he died in 1926 following an auto accident. Button Salmon's last message to his teammates, spoken to J.F. “Pop” McKale, coach and athletic director, was, “Tell them... tell the team to bear down.” A memorial to Salmon was erected in 1986 and is the centerpiece of Bear Down Plaza outside the southwest corner of McKale Center. Students painted the slogan on the roof of University Gymnasium shortly after Salmon's death, and it has since been known as Bear Down Gym. UA's fight song, “Bear Down, Arizona,” was written by former UA marching band director Jack Lee and is a part of every major UA sports event. A highway memorial to the Bear Down tradition was dedicated in spring 2008 at Florence, Ariz., near the spot where Salmon was tragically injured.

“They Fought Like Wildcats”

In 1914, a student correspondent for the Los Angeles Times, covering the Arizona-Occidental football game at Occidental, penned: “The Arizona men showed the fight of wildcats.” After reading the dispatch of the game back in Tucson, the student body quickly supported a move to call all Arizona athletic teams the “Wildcats” instead of the “Varsity.” The writer, the late Bill Henry, who later became a renowned Times columnist and war correspondent, was honored as the “Father of the Arizona Wildcats” at the 50th Homecoming in 1964.

Cardinal & Navy

Until the University fielded its first football team in 1899, the school colors were sage green and silver. However, the student manager at the time, Quintus J. Anderson, was able to strike a particularly good deal with a local merchant for game sweaters of solid blue with red trim. He then wrote a request that the colors be adopted. His suggestion was approved, and it's been Cardinal Red and Navy Blue ever since for Arizona uniforms.

Territorial Cup

In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona-Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its hall of fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player. On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game -- the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a ‘Victory’ sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. To ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup will be moved from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, become the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player award in 2008, selected each year by covering media, in honor of the rivalry's late sportswriter. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, goes to the winning coach in the series. The games themselves have always been a matter of pride more than hardware for the oldest intercollegiate rivalry trophy game in America with a century-old silver award.

“A” Mountain

Situated on Sentinel Peak (elevation 2,885 ft.) west of the city, the 160-foot high by 70-foot wide rock and mortar block “A” was constructed by UA students between Nov. 13, 1915 and March 4, 1916, in commemoration of Arizona's 7-3 upset football victory at Pomona in October 1915. For decades, freshmen students whitewashed the “A” in weekend ceremonies around the first day of school each fall. Currently the ‘A’ sports coats of red, white and blue.

1921 East-West Christmas Classic -Centre (Ky.) 38, Arizona 0

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—A dominating squad from Centre (Ky.) College splashed to a 38-0 victory over Arizona in front of several thousand rain-soaked fans, spoiling Arizona's first-ever bowl game appearance.

The Praying Colonels held the Cats to zero first downs in the first half, and Arizona was unable to maintain a good drive throughout the game.

Centre's Red Roberts, one of Walter Camp's first All-America ends, scored the first touchdown five minutes into the match. Later, All-American Alvin (Bo) McMillin went over the right tackle for another score. Centre led 18-0 at the half.

The second half was much the same, as Centre dominated every phase. Just as Arizona was mounting a drive late in the third stanza, an interception ended Western hopes, and the Wildcat defense was unable to halt the potent Eastern attack. Centre's Herb Covington scored on a punt return and a sweep to seal the victory.

1949 Salad Bowl - Drake 14, Arizona 13

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Arizona couldn't overcome crucial mistakes, and the Drake Bulldogs triumphed, 14-13, before a crowd of 14,000 in nostalgia-filled Montgomery stadium.

The fiesty Midwesterners were outgained by coach Miles Casteel's troops, 355 yards to 206, but the Cats had two fumbles and an interception that ended any hope for a victory. Drake built a 14-7 halftime lead on the strength of Frank Metzger's 1-yard run and Floyd Miller's interception of Ed Wolgast for a 20-yard score. The Cats got on the board with a 15-yard Wolgast rollout.

Arizona roared back in the second half, as running back Charlie Hall romped 79 yards with the third quarter kickoff. The Cats failed to score on their first thrust after the thrilling return, but after an exchange of punts, the durable Wolgast tallied his second touchdown.

Drake carried the luck on this afternoon. Arizona's Wrinfred Tackett, one of the Border-Conference's top extra-point kickers, booted the pigskin against the left upright, the ball bounced away from the goal posts, and Drake escaped with a one-point margin.

Wolgast finished the day with 133 yards rushing, eight yards more than Drake's team total.

1968 Sun Bowl - Auburn 34, Arizona 10

EL PASO, Texas—Arizona battled Auburn on even terms for one half, but within a period of seven minutes in the second half, the Tigers scored 24 points to crush the Wildcats, 34-10, before 32,302 weather-beaten fans and a national television audience in the 34th annual Sun Bowl.

Auburn had taken the lead, 10-0, on a John Riley 52-yard field goal, tying a Sun Bowl record, and a 65-yard touchdown pass from All-SEC quarterback Loran Carter to Mickey Zofko. But the Cats were fit to be tied as Steve Hurley booted a 37-yarder after both teams exchanged turnovers. Arizona held Auburn on fourth down with under two minutes left in the half, and Arizona's Bruce Lee went to work. Two first-down pass completions set up a 12-yard toss to Hal Arnason in the end zone, tying the score 10-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Auburn took the lead and didn't look back as Tommy Taylor scampered nine yards to put the Tigers up 17-10. Then Buddy McClinton intercepted Lee for the third time in the game and raced 32 yards to score. Auburn's next possession produced a dazzling Carter to Tim Christian 42-yard touchdown pass. Riley then kicked a 41-yard field goal to secure the victory with 11:14 left.

Auburn's Buddy McClinton was voted MVP of the game, and All-America tackle Dave Campbell was honored as the outstanding lineman.

1979 Fiesta Bowl - Pittsburgh 16, Arizona 10

TEMPE, Ariz.—The 10th-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers survived a late rally and hung on to defeat Arizona, 16-10, in the 1979 Fiesta Bowl.

A national television audience was able to watch superb defensive play on both sides. Arizona's defense held Pitt to 299 yards, while the offense dented the Panther's nationally-ranked defense for 317 yards.

Pitt led 6-0 at halftime on the strength of 46-and 36-yard field goals by the game's most valuable offensive player, Mark Schubert. Arizona moved the ball well, but couldn't get the one big play it needed. The Cats drove to Pitt's 37, 26 and 22, but came up empty each time.

The Cats' trouble came on key plays. Midway through the first period, they were stopped on fourth-and-two at the Pitt 21. Arizona managed to get on the board late in the third period on a 38-yard field goal by Brett Weber, but Pitt answered with a touchdown to expand its lead to 13-3.

The Panthers appeared to have wrapped up the game when Schubert kicked his third field goal of the day with 8:02 left. But the Cats reached into their bag of tricks to get back in the game. From the Pitt 47, fullback Hubie Oliver took a pitch and launched a pass down field to Greg Jackson who caught it at the Panther one. Oliver scored on the next play.

The outcome was in doubt until Terry White picked off a Jim Krohn pass with :58 remaining. Arizona's David Liggins was voted the game's most valuable defensive player on the strength of two key interceptions of Dan Marino passes to thwart Panther drives.

1985 Sun Bowl - Arizona 13, Georgia 13

EL PASO, Texas—Arizona and Georgia each failed on late field goal attempts leaving the teams tied, 13-13, and the record Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 going home with an empty feeling.

The teams battled on even terms for a half with Georgia's Steve Crumley booting a 37-yard field goal and Arizona's Max Zendejas adding a 22-yarder after an apparent Arizona touchdown was nullified by penalty.

The third quarter belonged to coach Larry Smith's troops, who drove 34 yards with the second-half kickoff before Zendejas nailed a 52-yard field goal. The Wildcats expanded the margin to 13-3 with 3:30 left to play in the stanza, as Martin Rudolph picked off a James Jackson pass and bolted 35 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona 28, where Davis Jacobs kicked a 45-yarder to begin the Bulldog rally. Two plays later, James DeBow fumbled, and Georgia's Tony Flack recovered to set up Lars Tate's game-tying 2-yard run. Jacobs missed a 44-yarder with 1:14 to play. The Cats then used a 25-yard David Adams run to give Zendejas a 39-yard try with :10 remaining. However, his attempt was wide-right and short.

Zendejas and Georgia center Peter Anderson won outstanding player honors.

Arizona finished the season at 8-3-1, while Georgia wound up 7-3-2.

1986 Aloha Bowl - Arizona 30, North Carolina 21

HONOLULU, Hawaii—Arizona capitalized on big defensive plays to coast to its first-ever post-season victory, 30-21, over North Carolina. All-America free safety Chuck Cecil was the ring-leader of the Cat defense that forced five fumbles with bone-jarring hits.

The Arizona offense showed spark as well. David Adams closed his sterling career with 81 yards rushing and a touchdown and three catches for 77 yards. Offensive MVP Alfred Jenkins finished 12-of-28 passing for 187 yards and a score.

But it was coach Larry Smith's defense which made the big plays to set up points. A Jim Birmingham fumble recovery led to a 31-yard Gary Coston field goal to begin the attack. Later, Boomer Gibson partially blocked a punt, and the Cats put seven more on the board with an Adams one-yard scamper. Danny Lockett's sack of Mark Maye caused a fumble, and the Cats cashed in with another Coston three-pointer for a 13-0 halftime lead.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Arizona's Jeff Valder booted a 52-yard field goal to set an Aloha Bowl record. Then Cecil clobbered Jonathan Hall, and Jerry Beasley recovered the subsequent fumble at the Tar Heel 30. Jenkins found Jon Horton from 13 yards out for the quick score. Another Tar Heel fumble led to Greathouse's five-yard scoring run, and the Cats were in control.

1989 Copper Bowl - Arizona 17, North Carolina State 10

TUCSON, Ariz.—Arizona cashed in on big plays to defeat North Carolina State, 17-10, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 37,237 in the inaugural Copper Bowl. The Wildcats were dominated statistically, 310 yards to 130 yards including a season-low 50 yards on the turf. However, two unlikely heroes, Olatide Ogunfeditimi and Scott Geyer, made the big plays to pull out the victory.

In the first stanza, neither team could sustain drives, but the Cats got on the board first as Ronald Veal found a double-covered Ogunfeditimi 37 yards down field for a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter proved more magical as Geyer, the Defensive MVP, intercepted Shane Montgomery and raced 85 yards for a score.

But the Wolfpack had a magic wand of their own as Montgomery, the Offensive MVP, capped a 56-yard, nine-play drive with a four-yard touchdown toss to fullback Todd Varn to cut the lead, 14-7. The half ended with a Gary Coston 34-yard field goal. Score: 17-7.

The second half included a Damon Hartman 43-yarder to inch the Pack closer, 17-10. However the New Year brought a little luck to the Cats, as Montgomery just missed a diving Chris Williams over the middle for the possible tying touchdown with 1:02 left.

Arizona Dick Tomey notched a victory in his first-ever bowl game in 13 years as a head coach. The Wildcats finished 8-4 on the season, and the Wolfpack closed at 7-5.

1990 Eagle Aloha Bowl - Syracuse 28, Arizona 0

HONOLULU, Hawaii—Marvin Graves ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score as Syracuse embarrassed Arizona, 28-0, in the ninth Eagle Aloha Bowl game in rain-drenched Aloha Stadium.

Graves scored on a pair of 5-yard runs and threw 47 yards to Terry Richardson and 6 yards to Chris Gedney as the Orangemen ran their record to 7-4-2. Arizona fell to 7-5. The shutout snapped Arizona's 214-game scoring streak, the second longest scoring streak in NCAA history. The last time the Cats were shut out was a 31-0 defeat by Arizona State in 1971.

The Orangemen drove 65 yards in 13 plays following the opening kickoff with Graves scoring on a quarterback draw from the five with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse made it 14-0 with 2:22 remaining in the half as Richardson slipped behind the Cat pass defense for an easy 47-yard reception. Arizona tried to get back into the game in the third quarter, twice reaching the Orangemen 35-yard line. But both drives died, and Syracuse put the game away in the fourth quarter with two long marches.

Graves was selected as Syracuse's most valuable player, and cornerback Todd Burden, who had two interceptions and caused a fumble, was selected as Arizona's most valuable player. The week-long inclement weather put a damper on many activities and caused many ticket purchasers to stay at home. There were 32,217 tickets sold but only 14,185 attended the game.

1992 Hancock Bowl - Baylor 20, Arizona 15

EL PASO, Texas—Arizona's defense lived up to its billing on all but two plays; those spelled doom as Baylor's big scoring passes helped beat the Cats, 20-15, in the John Hancock Bowl.

UA, which unleashed a no-huddle, wide-open passing attack, opened scoring with a Steve McLaughlin first-quarter field goal and increased the lead to 10-0 with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by a George Malauulu quarterback draw for seven yards mid-way through the second quarter.

BU halfback Brandell Jackson hit Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard strike three minutes later, but Arizona answered with a 14-play drive to set up another McLaughlin field goal and take a 13-7 halftime lead.

The Bears, held to 47 yards rushing, went to the air and struck again with another Bonner TD catch for 69 yards from QB J.J. Joe. Shortly into the fourth period, the Bears capitalized on two Arizona fumbles in UA territory and cashed them in for two Terry Weir field goals and a 20-13 lead.

2011 Arizona Football

With time running out, Arizona held BU deep on fourth-and-eight, and punter Rhett Delaney took an intentional safety at 0:31. A Chuck Levy 27-yard kickoff return put the Cats in decent shape, and UA drove to the Baylor 28. Two passes from Malaualu into the end zone were incomplete although Heath Bray nearly snagged the game winner on the first try.

1994 IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl - Arizona 29, Miami 0

TEMPE, Ariz.—Arizona's heralded "Desert Swarm" defense lived up to its name, and the Cats' offensive attack nearly named its own price as UA thumped No. 10 Miami, 29-0, in IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl XXIII.

The convincing victory was the bowl's only shutout in its 23-game history.

UA ran for 257 yards and one touchdown, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, had three Steve McLaughlin field goals and held Miami to 182 yards in total offense. The Wildcats' swarming defense limited the Canes to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 22 rushes and 35 yards, plus picked off three Miami passes and sacked the quarterback four times.

Tailback Chuck Levy ran for 142 yards including a 68-yard scoring dash and earned Fiesta Bowl offensive MVP honors, while defensive end Tedy Bruschi recorded a sack and earned defensive MVP honors for UA.

UA jumped to a quick lead on its first possession, driving 75 yards with Dan White throwing a 13-yard TD pass to Troy Dickey. Arizona never looked back.

The Canes' total offense was the second-lowest in Fiesta Bowl history, and the Arizona margin of victory was the second-largest in bowl history. Arizona enjoyed a time of possession advantage of 37:20 to 22:40 for Miami, another bowl record. Miami's frustration was typified by its first possession, starting at its own 37-yard line. Three plays later the Canes punted on fourth-and-41 from their own 6-yard line.

The game gave UA its first 10-victory season in 90 years of football, and its strong showing earned the Cats a No. 9 final ranking in the coaches poll and No. 10 in the media poll.

1994 Freedom Bowl - Utah 16, Arizona 13

ANAHEIM, Calif.—Utah used a 72-yard kickoff return to set up the winning touchdown, as the Utes upset No. 14 Arizona in the 11th annual Freedom Bowl, 16-13. A crowd of 27,477 watched as the Cats used a stifling defense to hold Utah to only 75 yards of total offense.

Arizona quarterback Dan White connected with Ontiwaun Carter from 23 yards out to give the Cats the early lead. After a White fumble deep in Arizona territory, Utah running back Charlie Brown scampered in from six yards out to tie the score.

After a 44-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, the Cats had first-and-goal at the Utah 2-yard line, but two dropped passes by Tim Thomas and then Lamar Lovett in the end zone forced the Cats to kick a 20-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter with Arizona leading 13-7, and Matt Peyton having to punt from his own end zone, the Cats gambled and took a safety as Peyton stepped out of the back of the end zone.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cal Beck returned the ball to the Arizona 5-yard line. The Wildcat defense held the Utes on three straight downs to set up a fourth-and-goal. Quarterback Mike McCoy scrambled out of the pocket and was in the grasp of Chuck Osborne but managed to get the pass off and found Kevin Dyson in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. A final UA drive ended in an interception.

The Cats recorded six sacks on the day, three of them by Tedy Bruschi, who earned Defensive MVP honors. Chuck Osborne had two sacks, and Sean Harris led the team with nine tackles.

1997 Insight.com Bowl - Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

TUCSON, Ariz.—Four Wildcat interceptions helped seal a hard-fought victory for Arizona over New Mexico in the ninth Insight.com Bowl, 20-14, before a crowd of 49,385 in the Cats' house, Arizona Stadium.

UA ran over the Lobos, using a 209-yard running attack featuring the quicker Trung Canidate and the bruising style of Kelvin Eafon on 43 of the team's 81 plays. Canidate was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player with 97 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Eafon earned the game's Most Valuable Player award for his 75 yards and two touchdowns on 19 totes. Thirteen of his rushes came in the fourth quarter when Arizona used ball possession to turn back New Mexico efforts at a game-winning touchdown.

Arizona picked off four passes by UNM's Graham Leigh—one in the first quarter by cornerback Chris McAlister, two in the third quarter by backup corner Kelvin Hunter and strong safety Rashee Johnson, and one in the fourth stanza by cornerback Kelly Malveaux, who returned the ball 44 yards just as the Lobos were crossing midfield. It was Malveaux's first interception of the year. Arizona outside linebacker Jimmy Sprotte earned the bowl's Most Outstanding Defensive Player honor with nine tackles including four hits for losses of 12 yards. Inside linebacker Marcus Bell was the Cats' leading tackler with 10.

Arizona coach Dick Tomey gave fifth-year senior QB Brady Batten the start in the game. An injury early in the year cost him a shot at the every-day spot. He played all but the fourth quarter, when the nominal No. 1 guy for most of the year, Ortege Jenkins, came on.

1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl - Arizona 23, Nebraska 20

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Arizona's defense held the storied Nebraska option rushing attack to 87 net yards, and the No. 5-ranked Wildcats cranked up some tough-guy rushing of their own to score 14 fourth-quarter points and beat the No. 14 Cornhuskers, 23-20, in the 21st annual Culligan Holiday Bowl.

The Cats secured the school's finest record in history and earned enough acclaim through their efforts in the game — the most watched of any college bowl game in ESPN history — to earn a final No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls.

Unanimous All-America cornerback Chris McAlister cemented his reputation with an outstanding effort, intercepting two passes, one which turned the Huskers back on their final come-back try with less than four minutes remaining. He also had a 78-yard reverse punt return called back because of a questionable blocking call against Derek Hall.

Arizona trailed 13-9 at the half, and both teams struggled through five possessions in the third quarter before UA's Dennis Northcutt gave the Cats some decent field position with a 16-yard punt return to start a 10-play scoring drive. Trung Canidate rushed five times for 37 yards in the span, and Keith Smith completed passes of five yards to Northcutt and Paul Shields and topped it off with a 15-yard strike to Brad Brennan for the score.

Nebraska answered, though, and reclaimed the lead at 20-16 with an eight-play, 88-yard drive, almost exclusively through the air.

With 10 minutes remaining, Smith opened UA's next drive with a seven-yard pass to Shields, then the Cats ran the ball eight straight times for the nine-play, 68-yard drive which netted the final score on a Kelvin Eafon one-yard plunge. Smith had runs of 20, eight and eight yards to set up the score.

UA halted the Huskers with McAlister's second pick and then later used enough clock with a first down to force Nebraska to get the ball back with 34 seconds remaining. One short completion and three incompletions, and the game was over.

Canidate ran for 101 yards on 22 carries. Smith, who completed 11-of-19 passing for 143 yards and ran for 25 more, was named Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP. UA's Mark McDonald, who was 8-17 in field goals during the regular season, was a big key with a perfect 3-for-3 day, including a career-long 48-yarder. NU outgained the Cats, but UA won the turnover battle and kicking game.

2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl - Arizona 31, BYU 21

LAS VEGAS-- Arizona capped its best season in nine years with a solid effort against No. 17 Brigham Young, beating the Cougars 31-21 in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

The Cats took the first lead, set up by a 71-yard pass from Willie Tuitama to Terrell Turner, added a Jason Bondzio 31-yard field goal a third of the way into the second quarter.

Tuitama fumbled a low snap on the first play of the second half and BYU took a 14-10 lead four minutes into the frame with the gift 27-yard drive. After that, Arizona stalled once, missing a 3rd-and-1 opportunity, but turned right around for a defensive three-and-out and two plays later Tuitama's 37-yard pass to Delashaun Dean struck put the Cats back in the lead.

The Cougs fought back with a 12-play, 39-yard drive, but missed a long field goal attempt. Tuitama hit successive passes of 19 and 17 yards, and after a five-yard gain by Nic Grigsby fired one down the seam to a streaking Chris Gronkowski for a 27-yard score, making it 24-14 at the end of the period.

Five minutes into the final period, Wildcat cornerback Marquis Hundley manned up and intercepted BYU's Max Hall in the end zone, taking it out to the UA 18 yard-line.

Tuitama led a seven-play, 82-yard drive, sparked by a 27-yard run by Grigsby and a 23-yard pass to Turner, and then ran it in himself from six yards out for a 31-14 lead. Again the Cougars showed some of their 17th-ranked gumption, using eight Hall passes and two of his runs to get into the end zone quickly, and recovered an ensuing onside kick at the UA 48 yard-line. Hall drove BYU 28 yards, but Mitch Payne's field goal attempt banged off the left upright with 2:07 left.

The Cats ran the ball four times and then Tuitama scootched a three-yard pass to Mike Thomas on the final play of the game, giving the latter the Pac-10 career receiving record with his 259th reception as time expired. Dean led UA with seven catches for 88 yards to help Tuitama complete 24 of 35 throws for 325 yards and the game's MVP award.

2009 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl - Nebraska 33, Arizona 0

SAN DIEGO—No. 20 Nebraska showed it was more than two ranking spots ahead of No. 22 Arizona by throttling the Wildcats, 33-0, in the Holiday Bowl.

After developing a reputation for high-scoring games and crazy finishes, the bowl got the first shutout in its 32-year history. Zac Lee threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Niles Paul in the third quarter to highlight the win, but it was only one moment in a dominating effort.

The coaches expected a defensive game, and the Huskers delivered, earning their first shutout in 46 bowl appearances, plus held UA to 109 net yards. Arizona quarterback Nick Foles was harassed all night and had one of his toughest outings of the year, finishing with nine completions in 30 attempts, for a miniscule 48 yards.

The Wildcats had the ball fourth-and-3 at the Nebraska 8-yard line with 1:41 to go, and eschewed a field goal, with safety P.J. Smith batting down Foles' pass to preserve the shutout. Nebraska free safety Matt O'Hanlon intercepted Foles on the third play from scrimmage and returned it 37 yards to the Arizona 5. Lee scored on a 4-yard run two plays later. It was the fastest score in Holiday Bowl history, coming just 75 seconds in.

Nebraska (10-4) got its first 10-win season since 2003. Nebraska's Alex Henery set a Holiday Bowl record with four field goals, from 47, 50, 41 and 22 yards. Arizona finished 8-5. NU coach Bo Pelini earned bragging rights in Youngstown, Ohio, where he and UA coach Mike Stoops grew up and played at Cardinal Mooney High.

2010 Valero Alamo Bowl – Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10

SAN ANTONIO—No. 14 Oklahoma State kept Arizona's offense out of the end zone and used four Wildcat turnovers to spoil the Pac-10's first game in the bowl since its early years.

Arizona outgained the Cowboys 370 to 312 yards, holding the vaunted OSU offense some 200 yards under its average. After an initial stop, however, Bug Wright fumbled the first punt of the game and gave OSU a short field for a 26-yard drive and the lead. The Cats were stopped on their next possession and OSU's Brandon Weeden connected on a 71-yard toss to Justin Blackmon to add to the lead.

UA answered with a 63-yard drive to cut it to 14-7. After an exchange of possession a short UA punt set the Cowboys up at midfield and OSU settled for the first of three Dan Bailey FGs. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Nick Foles was intercepted by Markelle Martin and returned 62 yards for a score. Bailey missed the kick and it was 23-. UA took the ball inside the OSU 40 yard-line three times but could not score before halftime.

UA showed some life with an Alex Zendejas field goal in the third quarter to make it 23-10 but OSU answered with its longest drive of the night to make it 30-10. Another Foles' interception near midfield set up a second Bailey field goal. Zendejas missed a 34-yarder minutes later in the fourth period, and Bailey knocked one home again for the final score. UA drove to the OSU 9 yard-line but could not cash in on 3rd- and 4th-and-1.

The Cats had 25 first downs to 17 by the Cowboys, held a 15-minute edge in time of possession but were one for three in the red zone, were sacked five times (to zero for UA), and suffered three interceptions and the fumbled punt for -4 turnover margin.

Receiver David Douglas took home the Fred Jacoby Sportsmanship Award for a 6-catch, 91-yard evening while the bowl offensive MVP award went to Blackmon for eight receptions for 112 yards and two scores, and the defensive MVP honor went to OSU defensive back Martin for his key INT.

Selection Process

The Hall of Fame induction committee meets annually to elect the incoming class from nominations submitted by anyone in the UA community. New inductees must receive two-thirds of a quorum of the committee's membership, which must be present at the meeting..

The latest class, to be honored in connection with 2011 Homecoming weekend Nov 5 (Utah football game) include swimmer Simon Burnett, swim coach Frank Busch, runner Robert Cheseret, swimmer Lyndon Ferns, volleyball player Kim Glass, baseball's Trevor Hoffman, softball's Alicia Hollowell, basketball player Shawntinice Polk and swimmer Marshi Smith.

Arizona Stadium

One of the finest playing facilities in the country, Arizona Stadium reflects the history and tradition of Arizona football and the overall growth of the University of Arizona campus. Soon, with a new north end-zone football facility, the growth of Arizona Football will continue.

Built in 1928 with 7,000 seats located on the west side between the end zones, the stadium has grown into a 57,000-seat facility that combines tradition with modern conveniences, and remains one of the top venues for its spectators. That will improve in 2011 with a new, basketball-court sized videoboard installed in the south end zone, and construction on the new north end-zone facility is expected to commence this fall.

Every seat features an uncluttered view of the playing surface, and more than half of the seats provide sweeping vistas of the campus and nearby city skyline, as well as the Santa Catalina Mountains. The natural playing field, renewed frequently, is hybrid Bermuda grass for a resilient and fast surface. The natural surface has remained a consistent feature of Arizona Football.

Since playing and winning their first game on Oct. 12, 1929 (35-0 vs. California Tech), Arizona football teams have played 475 games in the stadium, 378 of them at twilight or night, winning 290, losing 173 and tying 12. The team has gone undefeated nine times, the last time coming with a 6-0 record in 1993.

UA has enjoyed steady fan support through the years, notably in the past six seasons with 52,000-plus averages.

A stadium record crowd of 59,920 witnessed the Arizona-Arizona State game on Nov. 23, 1996. The highest average attendance for a season was the 56,562 per game who saw the Cats play in 1994. The 2006 average was second-best at 55,798, with four capacity crowds. In 2009, the Oregon game and ESPN College Game Day drew a season high of 57,863.

Substantial stadium refurbishing projects within "Vision Arizona," UA's master facilities plan, include the football facility in the north end, with 5,000 upgraded seats, loge seating, an 185,000-square-foot operations center with strength training center, sports-medicine suite, team dining hall, coaches offices, locker room, meeting room and equipment and facility services areas. The $72.3 million complex was subject to approval from the Arizona Board of Regents this past summer. A new monster videoboard was erected for 2011.

As Arizona football grew, so did the facilities surrounding it. In 1989, a $6.3 million structure housing the media, skyboxes and loge seating was added. Two other non-football features of the stadium are notable – UA's renowned Tree Ring Research Lab on the west side and the Steward Telescope Laboratory on the east side – two of the nation's most venerated research facilities. The mirror lab is a dozen years old; the tree ring research disciplines will be moving to new quarters elsewhere next year.

The media center is the third press box to service the media at Arizona Stadium. Increased exposure as the program moved into the Pacific-10 Conference outgrew the first two structures. It's the latest in a long line of additions made to the stadium throughout its 82-year history.

In 1938, seats were added between the 25-yard lines on the east side to boost capacity to 10,000. Nine years later, the end zones were filled, and in 1950, the horseshoe at the south end was completed, giving the facility a capacity of 22,671 seats.

That's the way it remained until 1965 when expansion on the west side provided 10,000 new seats, along with an 80-foot, multi-level press box. The two-tier addition to the east stands, adding 17,000 seats in 1976, was selected as one of six outstanding architectural projects in the Rocky Mountain States for 1977 by the AIA. Finally, then-permanent north-end bleacher seating for 4,500 was added in 1988, although it will be replaced for the North End Zone Complex.

NOTES... The first game was played in Arizona Stadium on Oct. 12, 1929, with UA beating Cal Tech, 35-0... The first night game was two years later, Sept. 25, 1931, with Arizona dropping a decision to San Diego State, 8-... See Page 34 for stadium attendance marks vs. Pac-12 Schools and Page 52 for largest crowds at road games...

Tucson, Arizona

Situated in the heart of Southern Arizona, Tucson is a city of contrast and diversity, from the desert valley of world-famous saguaro cacti to 9,000-foot alpine forests. The city is bountiful in its geographic, cultural and business assets. The population of the greater Tucson area is just under one million.

On any of the 350 days of sunshine per year, the Santa Rita Mountains can be seen some 65 miles to the south, a ridgeline near the Arizona-Mexico border. Nearby Mt. Lemmon, the southernmost ski resort in the United States, affords winter activities on the same day as a golf game or any of myriad recreational opportunities in the area.

The city lies in the Sonoran Desert, which boasts a wide range of wildlife and vegetation. Saguaro National Monument and its world-famous display of giant saguaros, highlights the unique beauty of the area. Tucson is a four-hour drive from Mexico's Gulf of California beaches, 70 miles from Mexico and within hours' drives from several major international bird-watching areas. World-class astronomy facilities on four nearby mountain ranges also attract visitors and specialists alike.

Its first Native American inhabitants and the earliest Spanish settlers to the area have left marks on Tucson. Native American, Mexican and American Southwest influences are prevalent throughout the city. The Mission of San Xavier del Bac, located on the outskirts of town, is one of the original missions built by the Spanish missionaries. Continuously settled for more than 12,000 years -- the oldest such settlement in the United States -- Tucson has grown from a small Native American village into one of the Southwestern growth cities of the 21st century. It is one of the premier astronomy and optics centers in the world, an important health services center and home to a renowned research institution in the University of Arizona. Phoenix is a two-hour drive to the north and is home to NBA, NFL, NHL and Major League Baseball franchises.

University of Arizona

Old Main

Born on 40 acres of land donated by two roughnecks and funded by a $25,000 consolation prize in Tucson's competition for the Territorial capital, the University of Arizona rose from the desert floor of the true old West. Nobody wanted it, and fewer believed it would last. Fortunately, they were wrong, and the bet laid down by saloon-keeper E.B. Gifford, and gamblers Ben C. Parker and W.S. Read on Nov. 27, 1886, has paid off into one of the finest research institutions in the world.

When the first 32 students arrived at the only building on campus in 1891, they began a tradition that has now entered its third century.

That building, Old Main, remains as witness to the University's growth from outpost into a 450-acre Research I institution with nearly 200 buildings, more than 38,000 students, and a faculty and staff of 12,000.

Arizona's first university is the largest employer in Pima County and the fourth-largest in Arizona with a payroll of half a billion dollars. The UA offers more than 325 degree fields in a dozen different colleges and another similar group of specialized schools.

Today, the University of Arizona is one of the top 20 research universities in the nation and has played a part in groundbreaking projects ranging from the exploration of Mars to the development of new cancer treatments and pioneering breakthroughs in heart transplantation. UA's observational, theoretical and space astronomy programs have been ranked atop others in the country by the National Science Foundation (NSF) and recent other rankings placed 17 of the school's graduate programs among the top 20 in the nation. In addition, the Nobel Prize, three Pulitzer Prizes and the National Medal of Science have been bestowed upon Arizona educators.

Not to be forgotten, the University's undergraduate programs continue to flourish. The NSF considers Arizona to be one of the 10 universities that best integrates teaching and research for undergraduates. The NASA-funded space grant program pays undergraduates to work in laboratories alongside faculty, and the Undergraduate Biology Research Program includes 43 departments, involves 200 faculty sponsors and funds more than 100 undergraduate researchers each summer. The Eller College of Management and the McGuire Center for Entrepreneurship are rated in the global top 10 by Finance Times. The University was named in an Elite 50 list of institutions for academically-minded athletes last year.

UA's top-notch programs develop top-name graduates who have continued on to success in their respective fields. The UA boasts a laundry list of graduates who have significantly impacted society. From the late U.S. Congressman Morris K. Udall to Joan Ganz Cooney, founder of the Children's Television Workshop, to Emmy Award winning actor/comedian Garry Shandling, UA graduates have made their mark on the world. Other notable ex-Wildcats include film and television producer Jerry Bruckheimer, singer Linda Ronstadt, baseball manager Terry Francona, baseball owner Arte Moreno, the late astronaut Richard Scobee, television fitness personality Denise Austin, noted horse trainers Bob Baffert and Todd Pletcher, brewery CE) August Busch III, former Boston Globe publisher Richard Gilman, and noted national sports broadcasters Steve Kerr, Dan Hicks, Tom Tolbert, Teddy Bruschi and Sean Elliott.

The UA plays host to the world, with students representing all 50 states and 130 countries. A large portion of the student body consists of minority students and the campus is located in one of the most diverse locations in the country, with the influence of Native American and Hispanic cultures evident throughout the Tucson community. The University of Arizona is in its third century of service with a continued commitment to providing support to its undergraduate population, while its world-renown research enterprises keep it on the cutting edge in the expanding global economy.

This commitment to excellence ensures that the University of Arizona will continue to grow from its auspicious beginnings as a single-building outpost in the desert into a world-class center for knowledge and research well into the next century.

University President Eugene Sander

In mid June, UA President Robert Shelton was named executive director of the Fiesta Bowl, ending his tenure as UA's top executive after a five-year run.

The Arizona Board of Regents appointed Eugene G.

Sander, retiring vice provost and dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences to serve as interim president while the board conducts a search for the 20th president of the University of Arizona.

Shelton served as UA President beginning in July 2006 until his departure. His leadership and active relationship with the program were keys to the success of the athletics department. He recruited and hired Greg Byrne as athletics director in March 2010.

Sander, scheduled to retire July 1, served as vice president and provost of the UA from July 2007 through April 2008 during the search for a permanent provost and also served as vice president for outreach from 2006 to 2009.

He holds degrees from the University of Minnesota (B.S.), and Cornell University (M.S., Ph.D.), and has completed post-doctoral study at Brandeis University.

Prior to his move to Arizona, Sander served as the deputy chancellor for biotechnology development, director of the Institute of Biosciences and Technology, and head of the department of biochemistry and biophysics at the Texas A&M University system. He was chairman of the department of biochemistry at West Virginia University Medical Center and associate chairman of the department of biochemistry and molecular biology at the University of Florida College of Medicine. He was an officer in the U.S. Air Force and assistant chief of the biospecialties section at the Aerospace Medical Research Laboratory.

UA Director of Athletics Greg Byrne - Second Year

Greg Byrne became the University of Arizona's 11th director of athletics on March 22, 2010, appointed by then UA President Robert Shelton.

Byrne was named by the Sports Business Journal to its 2011 class of "Forty Under 40" top sports management leaders in March 2011.

Byrne, 39, was athletics director at Mississippi State for two years prior to his appointment in Tucson and has 16 years of athletics administration experience at Arizona, MSU, Oregon State, Oregon, Kentucky and with the Fiesta Bowl. A native of Idaho, he grew up in Eugene, Ore., where his father, Bill, was AD at the University of Oregon from 1983 to 1992. Bill is current director of athletics at Texas A&M.

Byrne's initial stewardship of the UA program has been marked by energetic outreach to signal a new direction for UA as it continues its second century of athletics competition. His communication skills have been demonstrated in a short time, with increased regional and national focus on Arizona's program. Further, his development skills have been showcased in the growth of the Wildcat Movement -- his vision for an all-embracing proliferation of support from grass-roots to leadership giving.

His Arizona tenure has included steady APR improvement, a strong record of citizenship by student-athletes, increased competitive record (UA's highest Director's Cup finish in five years), two consecutive State Farm Territorial Cup Series titles in the program's competition against ASU and marked improvement in the department's relationships with its varied constituents.

One of his initial moves at UA was the hiring of Laura Ianello as head women's golf coach, shortly after she earned Pac-10 Coach of the Year honors in an acting role. Last April he made a second major hire, appointing Eric Hansen, Big Ten

Conference Coach of the Year, to replace departing hall of famer Frank Busch at the head of UA's noted swimming and diving programs.

At Mississippi State, Byrne hired head football coach Dan Mullen, volleyball coach Jenny Hazelwood and baseball coach John Cohen, a recent Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year.

Byrne ascended to the Mississippi State director's role after serving as associate athletics director for external affairs in Starkville for two years. He was actively involved in helping raise more than $120 million in gifts for intercollegiate athletics during that span.

He began his athletics career with the Fiesta Bowl from 1993 to 1995, and then moved to the University of Oregon in 1995 where he was regional director of development in the athletics department. From 1998 to 2002 Byrne was Oregon State University's associate AD for development, helping overhaul its annual giving program. From 2002 to 2005 Byrne was at the University of Kentucky as associate AD for development and fundraising, overseeing efforts that doubled annual gifts and leading a major facility campaign.

Byrne then moved to Mississippi State, first as associate AD and then, at the age of 36, he became the youngest person to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level. Multi-million dollar projects at Humphrey Coliseum and Davis Wade Stadium were initiated under Byrne's watch, along with groundwork for further facilities upgrades planned for track and golf.

Byrne earned a bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and a master's degree from Mississippi State in 2009. He and his wife, Regina, have two teenage sons, Nick and Davis.

He was born in Pocatello, Idaho, on Nov. 29, 1971.

IMG - Sponsorship Marketing & Broadcasting

IMG College and The University of Arizona department of Intercollegiate Athletics have partnered for a long-term agreement that puts the premier marketing, licensing and media company in the leadership role as administrator for the UA's media rights.

Founded in 1960, the New York City- and Cleveland-based global sports media and entertainment company directs Arizona's radio networks, publishes printed game programs and produces radio and television coaches' shows. Moreover, its major focus is the administration of the athletics department's entire corporate partnership program with more than 100 outside entities.

IMG acquired Host Communications, the UA media rights partner since 2004, in late 2008. IMG partners with CBS College Sports Network to produce the athletic department's web site and its online information-marketing platform. The initial contract with Host began with the 2004 football season, and significantly expanded beginning June 2007 to provide UA with substantial guaranteed revenue through this decade. The rights fee magnitude ranks at the top of the Pac-10 and in the top 10 nationally.

IMG's in-house personnel are quartered in the athletics department's McKale Center, led by general manager Ben Lorenzen.

The radio portion of the contract partners IMG with Citadel Broadcasting Company, using KCUB 1290-AM in Tucson as the flagship station for originating broadcasts, augmented by KCUB's 100,000-watt sister FM station, KHYT 107.5, in Southern Arizona. Additionally, IMG partnered with Lotus' KTKT 990 ESPN Deportes in 2007 to originate Spanish-language radio broadcasts for all football, the majority of men's basketball and selected women's basketball, baseball and softball games.

Considerable promotional time provided by IMG and Citadel are unprecedented in college athletics, and Citadel uses all of its five Tucson radio stations to feature and promote Arizona coaches and student-athletes on a daily basis. Weekly radio and television shows are produced for football coach Mike Stoops and men's basketball coach Sean Miller. Since 2004 the partner has produced numbers of softball radio broadcasts. IMG prints and publishes game programs for football and men's basketball.

IMG provides comprehensive sales, affinity marketing, multimedia, promotional and management services to universities, athletics conferences, associations and corporations. IMG represents a broad network of major-college institutions, plus maintains a 34-year relationship with the NCAA for the Final Four and 88 Championship events. Key company operating areas include marketing, association management, publishing, radio and television, and Internet strategies.

Brian Jeffries has served as the voice of the Wildcats in game broadcasts of UA football, basketball and baseball since Arizona's 1986 Aloha Bowl football appearance. He serves as IMG's full-time director of broadcasting. In the 2004 season, former UA running back Lamont Lovett began his color analyst career on the football broadcasts. In men's basketball, Jeffries teams with former basketball player Matt Muehlebach for broadcasts.

IMG also produces Arizona's local television packages for football and men's basketball, partnering with FS Arizona. Arizona athletics has worked with the Fox Sports Net regional affiliate FS Arizona for the past 10 years. Dave Sitton has been the television voice of Arizona athletics, along with multiple master of ceremonies duties for the department, for 20 years.

Arizonawildcats.com is a comprehensive Internet site for Wildcat sports news, and offers premium content radio streaming packages for most football, men's and women's basketball and baseball game broadcasts, along with various video features and other specialty audiovisual and interactive information such as soccer, gymnastics, volleyball and softball game video streams. UA's collaboration with CBS College Sports Network began for a second partnership in summer 2008.

The new Pac-12 television contract in 2012-13, as well as the formation of a Pac-12 Network for cable and digital platforms, will supersede IMG's television broadcasts and its online streaming partnerships with CBS College.

University of Arizona Media Policy

The University of Arizona embraces professional media coverage.

Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Wildcat sports and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at UA athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes; these guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

Requests for credentials to University of Arizona athletic events should be submitted to Tom Duddleston Jr., media relations director, McKale Center 106, Tucson 85721. Phone 520-621-4163. Email tduddles@arizona.edu. Co-football SID Blair Willis (bmw23@email.arizona.edu) may help, as well as associate director Richard Paige (rpaige@arizona.edu) both at the same phone number.

Football-practice media policies are determined by Head Coach Mike Stoops. Generally, practices in fall camp and spring are open to the media, with some limitations on photography/videography, while regular-season sessions are closed. During the regular season, interviews may be conducted with student-athletes and coaches Monday through Wednesday following practices, or by phone through advance request. Coach Stoops holds a weekly news conference at 11 a.m. Mondays throughout the year except before open dates. Phone interviews during the week may be arranged through Duddleston, Willis or Blake Grimsley (grimsley@email.arizona.edu).

Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Stoops or his assistants.

Questions regarding football media policy may be directed to Duddleston or Willis at any time via cell or text. Duddleston: 520-419-9236; Willis: 520-419-2979.
